

City to Control Private Wells

Private wells in the city of Birmingham must be approved by the city commission, it decided Monday night in a new ordinance governing construction of these wells. Commissioners pointed out the action was taken to prevent water from being wasted. The commission also approved a resolution calling for all owners of new homes to be erected hereafter in the city to pay the water department for new meter installations. Eccentric classifieds SELL!

Christmas Lights
Christmas has come to Walnut Lake! The first outdoor electric lighting decorating a residence here was turned on by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Burney of Lakeview drive take the lead and we hope many others will follow their lead.

Luncheon Guest
Mrs. Herbert Lewis of Birmingham entertained Mrs. John Phelps and Mrs. Howard Gould at luncheon in the afternoon. Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Gould were Mrs. Phelps' guests at the Birmingham Musical Christmas program and tea at the Community House.

Plan Memorial
Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. John Phelps of Walnut Lake road attended the program of Bach music and a tea held at the Detroit Boat club. The event honored the club presidents who are sponsoring the Bach commemorative concert to be held at the Masonic Temple, Feb. 5. It will mark the 200th anniversary of the death of the composer. Secretary of the Michigan Composers club, represented that organization.

In Radio Program
Members of the Cardinal H-Y group of Cooley high school and their sponsor, W. E. Kendall, of Comfort drive, took part in a radio program Saturday afternoon. "There Ought To Be a Law" featured a discussion of the pros and cons of having capital punishment in Michigan.

Navajo Boxes
Four large boxes of clothing for the Navajo Indians were gathered by the children of the Walnut Lake school in their annual charity project. John Woodman and Dave Martin packaged the goods and George Osterbeck saw to the shipping.

Junior Big Party
Junior Big will have its Christmas party Friday evening. All students of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades are welcome. A large group is expected and Edw. Kirbert, leader of the group, has a special evening planned. Mr. and Mrs. Axel Nyberg and Mrs. H. A. Congdon will represent the sponsors, the PTA.

Scout Convention
Polly Hanson of Putnam drive was a delegate of the Birmingham Council, representing the leaders at the recent Girl Scout convention in Milwaukee. During her stay in Wisconsin she attended her grandparents, Mrs. H. A. Congdon and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hanson, in Delavan.

With College Chorus
Lee Hanson, Jr., Michigan State student, sang with the men's glee club Monday night when they broadcast over the NBC network Tuesday he arrived at his home on Putnam drive to spend the holidays with his parents.

Scout Leaders Meet
Mrs. Edson Stevens, Mrs. Harry Hayes, Mrs. John Parkins and Mrs. Perry Graber attended the tea for Girl Scout leaders in the Community House on Friday. The tea was given by the council. Lee Hanson, a member of the council, attended a board meeting in the morning and also took part in the afternoon program.

Pinochle Club
A newly formed pinochle club held its first meeting Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Hampton on Stonycrypt. Mrs. Martin Wade took the lead for the evening. Members of the club are Mr. and Mrs. Richard King, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Wade, Mr. and Mrs. Hector McDougall and Mr. and Mrs. Don Hampton. They plan to meet once a month and their next meeting will be held at the Wade home on Deering.

Plan the Fair
Plans for the school fair are being made under the general chairmanship of William Sloat. Working on the steering committee with him are Edward Sinta, Frank Sweet, Mrs. Frank Morton, John Woodman, Mrs. William Goddard and Marjorie Votey. The fair will be held at the school in February.

Happy Birthday!
"Just like having Christmas twice," remarked Randy McKay at his birthday party on Saturday at his home on Walnut Lake road. Randy was seven years old and entertained five little girls and five little boys to celebrate the day. As his mother conducted the games in the recreation room, proud grandparents looked on and his father took pictures of the activities.

That evening a venison dinner was served for the family, with Mr. V. R. Richards as chef. Guests were Randy's grandparents, Mrs. Freda Lutens, and his great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Thomsen.
Mrs. Otis Zahn and her niece, Barbara Mattson, shared honors at a joint celebration of their birthdays, Sunday. A turkey dinner was given by Mrs. Zahn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mattson at their Detroit home for members of the family. Among the guests were the Clifford Williams and their children of Edgewood, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Zahn are sisters.

Dancing Parties
Samuel R. Bennett, principal of Barnum school, planned a series of dancing parties for the members of the seventh grade. The fourth, and last, was held on Friday. The parties were held after school when instructors taught the young people to dance. The purpose of the arrangements was to help bridge the gap between lower grade school social events and the dancing parties of the intermediate school. Having been instructed in the performance of dance steps and social graces, these young people will be included in the evening parties put on by the school and they will take part with a feeling of confidence that they can do as well as or better than the older students. This is the first year this plan has been used and both parents and teachers are pleased with the results.

Walnut Lake seventh graders taking part Friday were Beverly Negri, Stewart Schultz, Peggy Homingway, Marjorie Rickard and Valerie Benway.

Home Improvements
Reporters and photographers came to the Benway home on Lakeview and took pictures for an article on tips for home improvement. Pictures of the Benway's performing various tasks which led to some improvement appeared in a recent issue of a true magazine.

GIVE THE NEW—
MAYTAG AUTOMATIC

The completely automatic washer that gets clothes really clean!

- Completely automatic. Set two simple controls; Maytag does the washing, rinsing, spin-drying.
- Famous Maytag Gyrofoam washing action gets your clothes spotlessly clean. It's the same washing action as in standard model Maytags—acclaimed by millions of women.
- New spinning action. Dirt is flushed up, over, and away from the clothes, instead of through them.
- Spin-dry. Clothes come out tangle-free, with no hard-iron wrinkles.
- Safely lid. What a convenience! Add clothes at any time. Operating action stops when you raise the lid; starts again when lid is lowered.
- Fully guaranteed. The Maytag Company guarantees this automatic for a full year against defects in operation or workmanship.
