Puppies and Dogs At Animal Shelter for Christmas Gifts

Mrs. William G. Ferguson of West Valley road, Bloomfield Hills, has suggested a "living gift" for late Christmas shoppers. A member of the board of the Oakland County Animal Shelter, she says any number of puppies and grown dogs, along with some cats, are available there.

"It is amazing the number of good dogs which are brought in there every day," she said. "Some are pure-bred dogs, some are 'just dogs.' They are all awaiting good homes.

"Any of them would make an ideal Christmas present for some child or adult. To save local people the expense of a toll call, they may phone me at my home.

"Of course, anyone who wishes to see the dogs is welcome to go directly to the animal shelter at 1200 Walton, Pontiac. I do hope our people will take advantage of this, and combine the pleasure of a perfect gift for a person and a good home for a dog."

PTA Group Approves Western Movie

"She Wore a Yellow Ribbon" has been chosen as the PTA-approved movie for the children's matinee this Saturday at the Birmingham theater. According to the movie committee, this is a Western of better than average quality. It deals with the United States cavalry captain and the warring Indians. Although the Indian menace is always present, there are no scenes of actual warfare. John Wayne and Joanne Dru are the stars.

The Bloomfield will show "Home of the Brave" this weekend, a picture which the PTA movie committee rates as suitable for young people and adults but not children.
