

Barbara Toles Is Wed Friday to Davis Schroeder

Christ Church Cranbrook was the setting Friday evening for the marriage of Miss Barbara Toles and Davis M. Schroeder. Officiating at the rite was the Rev. Lawrence W. Ferraro.

The bride who is the granddaughter of Mrs. William J. Reinde of Woodward avenue, was in a gown of light ivory main cut with a pointed bustle and a full skirt which swept into a cathedral train. A small Peter Pan collar of Irish lace topped a row of self covered buttons and the sleeves were long and fitted.

A Juliet cap of Irish lace held her veil of illusion of finger-tip length. She was given in marriage by Clyde C. Bennett and her flowers were white carnations and stephanotis.

Men of honor in cameo blue tuxedos were Miss Mary Anne Foster. Her dress was fashioned with a ruffled shirt and a portrait neckline. Her bridesmaid in blue had a matching shoulder veil and she carried American Beauty roses.

Attending the bridegroom who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Schroeder of Fond du Lac, Wis., was William E. McIlhenny of Birmingham as best man and Leon Thurston, Jr., of Highland Park and James Yource of East Lansing as ushers.

Mrs. Reineke was in slate blue crepe with a matching hat and a camellia corsage, while Mrs. Schroeder wore gray Chantilly lace with a violet trimmed matching hat and corsage of violets.

Following a reception held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sparkman D. Foster of Quanton road, the couple left by motor to their new home in Memphis, Tenn. For traveling, the new Mrs. Schroeder selected a brown tweed suit with brown accessories.
