Now comes that season of the year when we start making New Year's resolutions, when the Secretary of Commerce will sound off in sage terms about next year's prosperity...

Democracy was meant for change. Democracy can't be too well defined, for today's definition is made obsolete by tomorrow's changes.

HAPPY NEW YEAR Nineteen-fifty LOTS OF LUCK TO YOU FOR THE WHOLE YEAR AHEAD. HAWTHORNE 162 N. Woodward Phone 299-W

We'll surely have many changes in 1950. That's going to be a good thing, for as long as there's change we may be sure we aren't stagnant.

Really now, that isn't begging the question. For within each of us there is something which seems to tell us what change is right, which is wrong.

So, as we face these certain changes, let us resolve to weigh them in the light of our own experience. Let us look for error more closely than we have in the past.

It is a bright world. It is so full of such wonderful things. Beauty and culture abound. Faith, though dimmed, is dominant.

Let us remember in 1950 that we, the people, are the sole sovereigns in our worldly life. Let us discern more clearly between the loud voice of a minority and the true and clear voice of the majority.

Let us be stagnant in neither our thinking nor our actions, for things stagnant do not move but only become more stagnant.

And with these homely thoughts, we at the Village Store wish each and every one of you the happiest and brightest of New Years.
