

Altar Society Hears Little Flower Choir

Over 100 women attended the Christmas program of the Holy Name Altar Society last Monday. The program which was arranged by Mrs. Joseph Cuchi, was the Little Flower chorus of 80 mixed voices. Soloist was Miss Jacqueline Cuyler and pianist for the group was Miss Joan Kelly. Christmas music was featured by the group. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Warren S. Sumner, Mrs. Thomas Keranagh and Mrs. Constant Bouchard. The table was centered with a miniature manger scene surrounded by diminutive angels with lily of the valley in their wings. Red candles completed the motif.

Bloomfield Branch of Garden Club Has Holiday Program

Members of the Bloomfield Hills branch of the National Farm and Garden Association met at Christ Church Cranbrook Monday bringing floral arrangements and table settings which carried out the theme of "Christmas Old and New."

William G. Ferguson was chairman of the exhibition committee and Mrs. Donald James who was in charge of the judging awarded blue ribbons to Mrs. Lynn Craig, Mrs. R. C. W. Sadler, Mrs. Ralph Williams, Mrs. Chas. B. Tilton, Mrs. Lynn Craig, Jr., Mrs. Leslie H. Green, Mrs. Edgar Plus and Mrs. Edward P. Turner.

The holiday program was headed by Betty Roberts' telling of "The Legend of the Madonna" and the Boys Club of Cranbrook under the direction of Robert E. Bates presented Christmas music and also selections from "South Pacific."

Each member of the club placed a gift for patients of Veterans Hospital under the tree. This project is headed by Miss Rosayne Thompson.

Mrs. Herbert W. Mason, club president, announced Mrs. Vernon Geni and Mrs. Albert J. Browning as the new first and second vice presidents.

The committee for international cooperation under the chairmanship of Mrs. Gran is working for strong cooperation by the club in sending CARE packages abroad.

It is hoped that beginning with the holidays and continuing through this coming year each member will invite to her home one or more of the foreign students at Michigan State College.

Mrs. Louise Carpenter of the adult education department in East Lansing is in charge of the "adventures in world understanding" and will furnish information for any person interested in participating.

Mrs. Mason and Mrs. Harry Taylor presided at the tea which followed.
