

Mrs. H. Robinson
Chairman of Smith
Fund Drive Here

Mrs. Howard H. Robinson of Washington road has been named chairman of the Michigan area of the Smith College 75th anniversary fund campaign for its final year. It was announced recently at fund headquarters in Northampton, Mass.

Mrs. Robinson will head a committee of local Smith women in this area. Smith alumnae are working toward a goal of $7,000,000 by June 1950 as a climax to the celebration of the 75th anniversary of the opening of the college.

Funds raised to date have made possible an increase in faculty salaries, additional scholarships, funds for a new dormitory, an increase in the college endowment, a central heating plant and the Davis Student Center, a recreation and social building for the undergraduates.

Money still to be raised before the fund is complete will be used for a new science building, additional scholarships and to maintain faculty salaries at a level which will attract and hold the best teachers.

Former Resident

AAUW Planning
Christmas Party
and Silver Tea

Christmas music, readings and thoughtfulness of others to be expressed by gift offerings for the veterans of Percy Jones Hospital are planned by the joint book groups for the Birmingham Branch of AAUW at a silver tea and Christmas party to be held at the home of Mrs. Thomas B. Anderson, Goodhue road, Bloomfield Hills at 1:30 p.m., Wednesday, Dec. 14.

As is the custom at December meetings, members are asked to bring gifts and or money for Christmas presents for the veterans at Percy Jones. Gifts could be: writing kits, toilet article cases, cigarette lighters, pen and pencil sets, etc. It has been requested that used items, crossword puzzles, jigsaw puzzles, scrapbooks and perishable liquor be avoided. The hospital also needs ornaments and decorations for their Christmas tree.

Music, Readings
The program, arranged by Mrs. Thomas B. Anderson, will consist of music and readings. Boys from the Cranbrook Academy school of music will present Christmas songs under the direction of Robert Bates, instructor in music.

Mrs. Anderson will give two readings: "Motherhood" by Agnes Lee and "Jules Doves, The Boy Who Laughed at Santa Claus" by Ogedan Nash. Besides work in dramatics at Albion University, Mrs. Anderson has studied at Curry, Radcliffe and Harvard. Allice Shaw, Mrs. Anderson's daughter, will sing "Ave Maria."

Tea will be served following the program. Each book group chairman has appointed two members to serve under the direction of Mrs. Donald Howarth, vice-president in charge of study groups and general chairman. Those assisting her are: Mrs. Lewis Sapington, Mrs. Ralph Scheel, Mrs. D. H. Ewen, Mrs. J. R. Ackerman, Mrs. Owen Mohler, Mrs. Harvey J. Forest, Mrs. Richard Sites, Jr., Mrs. H. D. McLessee, Mrs. A. F. Thornbury and Mrs. Merton J. Bell.
