During the temporary absence of our regular Walnut Lake correspondent the column is being prepared by Dorothy Kendall, Phone Longacre 5-2774.

Possibility of improving Walnut Lake and Inlander roads was discussed at the meeting of the Walnut Lake Men's Club Friday evening. Guest speakers were H. H. Thatcher, township supervisor, and Frank Haller, clerk. They also explained the duties and powers of the township officers. The conclusion drawn from the discussion was that it is possible to have the two roads blacktopped if the community gets behind this project.

At the annual banquet and election of officers of the Doberman Pinscher Club of Michigan, Harry MacDonald of Inlander road was elected president.

David and Lynn Granger gave a tobogganing and sleighing party at their home on Middlebrook on Tuesday. Their parents, Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Granger, permitted the children to loan their own toboggans and sleds. The whole school was invited.

After romping over the hills in the snow, the children returned to the rampus room to roast marshmallows. As the supply gave out, pop corn replaced it. Hot dogs intended for roasting had to be boiled to meet the demand and when these were consumed, hamburgers were served.

As the hour of departure came, several parents were called into service to help Dr. Granger and John return the youngsters to their homes.

Wednesday morning at school, a large box of assorted hats, coats, boots and scarves was delivered for proper redistribution.

Mrs. E. C. Banker, new president of the Walnut Lake Women's Club, has announced the appointment of two new chairmen. Mrs. Otis Zahn will be head of the refreshment committee and Mrs. W. E. Kendall will be hospitality chairman.

Junior Big met at the school Friday evening. They rehearsed the skit which was presented at PTA meeting on Monday. The skit, entitled "Our Impression of PTA meeting", was written by Douglas Lewis and Edwin Maki.

After rehearsal the young people played "seamus" and danced. Refreshments were served by Gail Sundstrom and Patty Peluso. Adult guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fitzgerald and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kendall.

Next Sunday afternoon at 1:30 they will hold their next practice at the same place. Membership is open to anyone in the community.

The Archery Club began target practice at their meeting on Sunday. Perry Graber instructed the members in preliminary training. A range was set up on the lawn of the McKay home on Walnut Lake road. Four children took part in the shooting.
