MOMS Club Bazaar For Benefit of Vets' Families
A plea for help that's what the bazaar the MOMS Club is sponsoring on Feb. 17 from 1:30 to 4:30 in the Community House really is. It is being given for the benefit of hospitalized veterans' families.
The fact that there is a great need among such families is well illustrated by the fact that one family with six children possesses no sheets or blankets for the youngsters' bed. They use their coats as covers. Another veteran who contracted TB, has a child with the same ailment and his wife is working to help support them. The family of another veteran who is hospitalized lives in a one room garage. There are three children.

Society of Women Painters Hold Their Bi-Monthly Meeting
Mrs. Ann Stanton opened her home last week to the bi-monthly meeting of the Birmingham Society of Women Painters. Following a luncheon, criticisms of pictures painted by members was made.
Among those attending were Mrs. J. Vinton Birch, Mrs. F. B. Eiter, Mrs. John Gaffin, Mrs. Fred Johnson, Mrs. Warren Sealy, Mrs. George Robson, Mrs. L. H. Thomas, Mrs. H. M. Denney, Mrs. D. M. Chaffin, Mrs. H. Gardner, Jr., Mrs. W. B. Conrad and Mrs. Lloyd Gulley.

Valentary Work
The social work department is a voluntary part of the club's administration; and aid for these men brought to their attention through the group's work at Veterans and Marine Hospital.

Aw -- go ahead and send your valentine a VALENTINE . . .
Take a chunk of your heart and send it; send it via one of these beautiful, meaningful Valentines of ours to that special valentine of yours! Will she (or he) be thrilled? You can count on it.
Whether they're six or sixty, sentiments like these for this centuries-old observance of February 14th will not fail to kindle or re-kindle the spark of love and friendship.
