Home Gardeners Hold Discussion on House Plants

The Home Gardeners of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association met yesterday morning at the home of Mrs. Frank Webb on Arlington drive.

Members brought house plants and discussed the variety and culture of each. Some of these plants were African violets, orchids, calla lily, begonia, cactus and succulents.

Mrs. Webb's special topic was "Let's Have More Vines in Our Gardens." Besides the wisteria, bitter-sweet, climbing hydrangeas, the more delicate ones, the sweet autumn climatis, the treese vine and akebia were highly recommended.

Climax of the meeting was a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Hyland, 316 South Glenhurst, where in their greenhouse, there were carnations, callulandis and madragons in bloom. These and other plants such as the cyclamen and shrimp plant are thriving in the 45 to 50 degree temperature of the greenhouse.

How to be Booked for Spring Pleasure

WE won't always have California weather in February! Come to LaBelles. Let us help you find that right book for that rainy afternoon, or that cool evening. Whether you want a book to help you escape from your own problems for a time; or stretch your mind a bit; or gather material so you can be an outran at the next gathering with your friends, we have it. Nor have we forgotten the younger set; we have books for them, too, from ones indestructible for babies, through the exciting or romantic tales the teen-agers love. LaBelles can book you for Spring Pleasure.

Have You Read:

- THE UNIVERSE AND DR. FRANKSTEIN, by L. Barnett $2.50
- This is the book that every thoughtful person will want to read. Advanced science reduced to the average citizen's comprehension. Readable and well thought out, and not the least of its charm is its comparative brevity.
- CHEAPER BY THE DOZEN, by Frank Gilbreth, Jr. and Ernestine Carey $1.00
- If you haven't already had the pleasure of getting acquainted with the Gilbreth family, don't delay. It's an experience whether you read it just for laughs, or for some pointers on helping that young hospital "glow" to maturity, even if he isn't one of a dozen.
- HIGH TOWERS, by Thomas B. Capitan $3.00
- That master story teller has done it again. This time with an early American background.
- THE SEVEN STOREY MOUNTAIN, by Thomas Merton $1.00
- The moving autobiography of the man who became a Trappist Monk at twenty-six.
- NINETEEN STORIES by Graham Greene 2.75
- Graham Greene, one of England's most brilliant authors has just published this book of short stories, written over a period of twenty years, which ably demonstrate his great abilities.
- CAPTURE THE CASTLE, by Dodie Smith $1.00
- Are you romantic? Well, who isn't? When did you last read a clever, sexy and pleasant love story? This is it! Don't miss it. Guaranteed to delight everyone from fifteen to one hundred, who ever felt the prick of Cupid's arrow.
