Maples Keep League Lead With Easy Win

By Pete Hartuff A dazed Mt. Clemens quintet came out on the short end of the score as the Maple cagers triumphed 47-23 last week in their last home contest of the season.

The game followed the same pattern as the first tilt, with the Maples in the driver's seat all the way. Then entire Maple squad, including several boys recently promoted from the reserves, saw action and nearly everyone figured in the scoring.

Playing their best ball in the third quarter, the Maroons nearly doubled their 19-point halftime mark to 37-19. As the final quarter ticked away, the second team saw most of the action and added another ten points for good measure and the 47-23 final tally.

Bob Polin was high again for the Maples with 13 points while Dick Halpin was second with nine. Jack Adams had four points for the Maroons with a ten point total.

Mid-Winter Formal Has Colonial Motif

The Kingwood School Cranbrook mid-winter formal Saturday evening will feature a colonial motif in commemoration of Washington's birthday. Midnight blue streamers will be suspended from the ceiling and silhouette of a Colonial man and woman in mimet pose will add to the decorations.

News Notes from Vaughan School

The Juniors sponsored a Heart Throb Dance for the upper grades of the high school on Friday evening. The auditorium was attractively decorated in a red valentine and lace motif by the junior committee composed of Donna Westerland, Helen Bradley, Jerry Levin and Bruce Wilson.

The eight grade's Social Studies class, under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Virginia Condon, held an Open House during their class periods all of last week. Many of the parents of the students had an opportunity to attend the class sessions and observe them in classroom situations.

Miss Agnes McHugh, the office secretary, had the misfortune to fall on the ice last week and break her wrist. She was hospitalized in Pontiac for about a day, but is now recovering satisfactorily.

Mr. Wyble of Stephens College, Mo., was most recent of several college representatives who have been interviewing our seniors. Monday he spoke a group composed of Barbara Bee, Sally Palmer, Marlene Thomas and Sheila Plannery about modern college life.

Maples Tighten Grip on League Lead as Cage Race Enters the Final Stretch

By Pete Hartuff The Maple hardwooders took a tighter grip on the league leadership by eliminating Hazel Park 35-26 last Friday night on the Vikings' floor.

Birmingham still faces Port Huron and East Detroit on the league schedule and both are potential threats. Port Huron always proves a tough opponent and the Maples need the Big Bear on their home floor tomorrow night. The East Detroit tilt comes up Feb. 25 also away.

It took the Maples awhile to become accustomed to playing conditions in the overcrowded Hazel Park gym, and they fell two points behind the first quarter with the Vikings leading 6-4.

In the second stanza, however, the Maple quintet showed away seven points while holding the Vikings to one marker. With a half time advantage, the maroons went on to build up a healthy lead in the second half.

Weekend Schedules Keep Crane Mat and Court Men On Toes

The Cranbrook Varsity basketball team won from Hamtramck High School last week by a score of 48 - 39. At the half, the team was tied at 18. High point man for Cranbrook were David Seeber with 14, Wayne Lyon, 12 and David Brock, nine. Hamtramck's Ken Burrell was credited with 19 points. The game was played on the Crane's home court. The Junior Varsity squad also won from Hamtramck 42-35.

On Saturday Cranbrook's basketball team and wrestling squad met the University School at Cleveland. On the basketball court, Cranbrook led the scoring consistently. Bingham Murray scored 15 points and Talcott James seven of the total 56 Cranbrook points to University School's 32. For the losers, Bruce Horman scored 14 points and Tom Pearce 12.

James Studler and Fred Steinman missed their men and Cranbrook lost the other wrestling matches to collect ten points to University School's 52.

In a Little Oak League contest at Hazel Park on Friday, the score at the half was 14 - 10 in favor of Cranbrook and the final score was 28 - 10. Bill Yaw scored nine points, followed by Charles Cunningham eight, John Hatch five, Paul Greenfield four and Jim Edson two. Hazel Park's top scorer was Tom Dugay with eight points.

The Cranbrook Lower School basketball team opened their schedule with a 30 - 17 victory over McKinley School in Southfield Township and went on to win from the Maple School in Dearborn 35 - 22. Both of these games were played at Cranbrook.

Gilbert and Sullivan Operas In Rehearsal At Cranbrook School

The Cranbrook School orchestra, under the baton of Axel Magnuson, Jr., is hard at work preparing the instrumental score of Gilbert and Sullivan's operas "Patience" and "Trial By Jury."

The vocal instrumentalists are Tom Galantowicz, John McDonald, Jerry Varon, Si Galperin in the clarinet section; trumpeters, Gordon Rosenthal, Reynolds Prussasi and Robert Gillow; cellists, Harry Hutton and Phil Plexico; Robert Ward and Janet Bleisner; French horn; Cal Patterson and David Tompkins, trombones; Bing Murray, baritone horn; Warren Crosby, flute; Richard Armbrust, saxophone; Benson Lake, James Snyder and Charles Chapman, percussion; and Bunker Clark, piano.

This year the orchestra will be augmented by some of the members of an informal chamber music group, recently organized by William Casey, Brookside School music director. Besides Mr. Casey, Jean Holmeyer, Mildred Thomas, Dorothy Lind, and Neva Fassen, former Sturgeon, the orchestra's regular conductor, will be concert master for this occasion, and Robert Bates will conduct.

Maples Hold Lead As H. Park Loses Swim Meet Here

By Dick Reilly By diving Hazel Park 68-16 last Friday afternoon at Barram pool, the Maple tankmen captured their seventh straight seasonal victory and, of course, retained the league's top position, which they have held throughout the season. Birmingham took first and second places in every event except the 100 yard breast stroke. This was the closest race, and Don McClelland was barely nudged out of second place by Captain Fred Belocinski of Hazel Park.

Jack Adams, Dick Dean, Don Goldsmith, Bob Webster, Dick Helgeson, Ted Harper and Frank Weaver took first 15 short respective events.

New Records Set

New school and pool records were set by Dick Dean in the 100 yard breast stroke; Don Goldsmith in the 200 yard free style; and Ted Harper in the 150 yard individual medley. The 200-yd. medley relay team consisting of Gene Walsh, Bob Webster, Dick Helgeson, and Jack Adams also established new pool and school times.

This was the second meet with the Vikings, coached by William Zupp. The Maple previously defeated them 56-28.

After the meet, several members of the team were guests of Coach J. J. Myers at the Wayne LaSalle swimming meet where they saw Joe Verdery, world record holder in the breast stroke.
