

Baptist Church Preparing For Two Anniversaries

The Rev. F. M. Santiago was guest speaker yesterday at the school of World Missions. He spoke on "Leading Latin Americans to Christ." With extensive experience in Christian service both in Mexico and the United States, Rev. Santiago is pastor of the Mexican Baptist Church, Detroit.

The school of World Missions is in session every Wednesday night this month, opening with a family supper at 6:45. The missionary program begins at 7:30 p.m.

On Feb. 23, the session will be designated as Men's Night with a sound film, "Passport to Nowhere." There has also been scheduled a mission quiz in which two men's teams will participate. Music will be provided by Roy Wragby and the Men's Quartet.

Missionary Groups

Today, Feb. 17, various circles of the Women's Missionary Union will hold their monthly meetings.

"Ruth Daniels" circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Manson Hillman, 1212 Lincoln; "Estelle Martin" circle is to convene at the home of Mrs. Raymond Smith, 1090 N. Woodward and the "Hazel West" circle members will gather at the Long Pine road home of Mrs. O. D. Hillman. Each circle bears the name of a woman missionary. The program meets at 10:30 a.m. and de White Cross work with luncheon at 1:00 p.m. A Mission study period is held the closing hour.

The advisory board of the church held its monthly meeting last week. Church moderator, Walter E. Turner, is making committee appointments for two anniversaries, the first on March 9 at which time the church will observe the 48th anniversary of the ordination of its pastor, the Rev. Emil Kontz, and on May 22-25 when the church marks the 20th anniversary of the dedication of its present building.

To Redecorate

In preparation for the latter anniversary, the Men's Club of the church has undertaken to provide for the complete redecoration of the church interior. Several rooms and halls have already been repainted. This work is proceeding under the supervision of Carroll B. Griffin. Directed by Howard E. Reid, the chairman of the house committee, the men are also setting up special power tools for the handi-craft shop. The shop will be ready for use soon.

The church has received the resignation of Miss Marie Lockrow as youth supervisor. Miss Lockrow is an advance student at Wayne University. She is also in charge of special radio and visual aid projects for the Detroit Council of Churches.

The Sanctuary Choir is under the temporary direction of George S. Souten of Highland Park, president of the choir organization. It is Roy Wragby, rehearsal are held every Wednesday evening at 9 p.m.

Next Sunday, Feb. 20, is the concluding day for the national observance of Brotherhood Week. In keeping with that occasion, the pastor of the church will preach next Sunday morning at 11 a.m. on the subject "Brotherhood in Practice."
