

Homeless but Loaded

Homeless but loaded with dough, a little brown and white puppy of undetermined breed waits patiently for his master to reclaim him after being abandoned in a Chicago depot. Apparently conscience-stricken, the owner left nine dollar bills tied around the pup's neck.

Kiwanis Planning Western Square Dance on March 4

Square dance enthusiasts here are in for a real evening at the Birmingham Kiwanis Club's western square dance round-up March 4. The gate to the corral will be opened at 8:30 to the general public in the first of a series of entertainments which the local Kiwanians will sponsor for the benefit of underprivileged children.

"Put on your boots and spurs, buttons and bows and prepare for a real western square dance and the time of your life," is the advice of the committee. Clarence (Red Ryder) Clohset and Sherman (Lone Ranger) LaMeasure claim they are going to outdo all other square dances.

Amid ranch fences and wagon wheels, the guys in Levis and the gals in calico will dance to the music of the Campbell Village Store trio, with the "Cheyenne" Brennans calling from 8:30 to midnight.

Al Parish, corral boss, will display his collection of Leo Carrillo saddles and Pecos outfits. He will award special prizes for costumes and dances. Intermission will feature special dancers, costumed in decorative lights.

Don Albright and Carl Petersen, co-chairmen of the decoration committee, declare that "the Community House will be the best looking barn you ever saw!" All members of the club are serving on this committee.

The Kiwanis Kwartet, Don Chaffey, Paul Stocker, Ernie Lunley and Eva Hoover, with substitutes, will be the singing barbers at the "Last Chance (soft drink) Saloon."

Here's the Chance

Two-gun Sheriff Sid Huff and Six-shooter Ernie Miller will be on hand to maintain law and order.

It is understood that folks around Birmingham and vicinity like to go all-out western occasionally," according to publicity chairman Fred Arz and Bill Thornburn, "and here's another chance for them at the Community House barn on Friday, March 4."

Ticket sales are in charge of Lew Carmick.
