

League Title At Stake As Maples Face E. Detroit

By Bob Folin

With a tie for the league championship at stake, Birmingham travels to East Detroit tomorrow night to take on one of the toughest quintets in the league. The Shamrocks have a well-balanced team that is hard to stop. Evidence of their power is two victories over Ferndale, the only team to take the measure of the Maples twice. Last week they defeated Hazel Park's up-and-coming team 51-49 in a hectic overtime.

Earlier in the season the Maples defeated East Detroit in the local gym, but the Shamrocks are es-

Haven't any time to write a column this week, because we've been busy trying to figure out just where we're going to put all of this new Spring merchandise which is beginning to arrive. It's some job. But the answer is simple: Sell a quantity of the heavier wear now taking up shelf space. So instead of writing a story on George Washington, or on those gorgeous new hand-woven woolen fabrics we are getting in from Connecticut, we've decided to put it this way:
