Are Married at St. Hugo's In Saturday Noon Rites

St. Hugo of the Hills was the setting Saturday for the noon nuptials of Miss Lula Dolores Wilkins and George Edward Baldwin. The couple, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Wilkins of Orchard Lake and the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Baldwin, also of Orchard Lake, repeated their vows before the Rev. William H. Buehr of Ypsilanti.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was dressed in ivory tulle and the bridegroom brought from Germany. The gown's lines were cut with a round neckline edged with a double row of lace, a fitted bodice and long pointed sleeves also edged in lace. A draped apron effect was caught up in back with a buckle and the full skirt fell into a court train. Her full-length shoes were held by clusters of orange blossoms over the ears and was trimmed with a lace band at the crown of the head. White roses and gardenias made up the bridal bouquet.

Mrs. W. Dean Thompson, Jr., of Orchard Lake was matron of honor in white crepe styled with a V neck and highlighted with a rhinestone belt. She wore a rhinestone necklace and on her head were a band of red and white car-
