

Bloomfield Hills PTA Will Hear Miss Irma Unruh

Miss Irma Unruh, supervisor of home and family life education, Detroit board of education, will be the speaker for the Feb. 8 meeting of the PTA of the Bloomfield Hills school district. She will speak on the subject "Developing the Right Attitudes in Health and Sex Education."

Development of the subject will start with a technicolor sound motion picture to establish the basic importance of pre-school favorable preparatory influences in the home and family environment. Further discussion will stress the value of conventional health checks as a basic need for desirable psychological as well as physical adjustment; and for building wholesome attitudes forward, and genuine understanding of, sex education.

Cline-Skuse Vows Are Spoken at Holy Name Church

Miss Patricia Skuse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Skuse of West Brown, was united in marriage to Dr. Allen Cline of Detroit, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Z. A. Cline of Muskegon, Mich., in a morning ceremony at Holy Name Church on Saturday. The Rev. James J. Koss officiated at the rites before an altar backed with white tulips, snapdragons and mums.

Miss Skuse was gowned in bridal white. Her dress was styled with a high, round neckline and a lace net yoke headed in orange blossoms. The sleeves were long and buttoned to the elbows and a full skirt, which swept into a cathedral train fell from a bodice of metallic lace trimmed in satin. A headed orange blossom crown held her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of white gardenias and sweet peas in a net backing.

Mrs. Robert Moody of Birmingham was her sister's only attendant in a sky blue dress with a lace bodice and net skirt. She wore a large matching hat and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mr. Michael Sheridan of Detroit served as best man and the guests were seated by Jack Savage and Robert Taylor, brothers-in-law of the bride, of Birmingham.

At her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Skuse wore a navy blue street length dress trimmed in white lace, a sapphire green hat trimmed in black and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Cline was in navy blue of street length with a matching hat and an orchid corsage.

At the wedding breakfast held at Mayans immediately following the ceremony, the Rev. David Duncan presented the nuptial toast and a reception was held in the Skuse home in the evening.

For the first step of the wedding trip to Miami and Dayton Beach Fla., the new Mrs. Cline selected a navy blue gabardine suit with grey accessories and gardenia corsage. The couple will also stop at Orlando, Fla., to visit Mr. and Mrs. M. Taylor.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. James J. Merrifield and daughter, Marjorie, and Miss K. Merrifield, all of Toronto, Ontario; Mrs. Jennie Sandison of El Paso, Texas; Dr. George Cochs of Evansville, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. C. Cline, a brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom of Grand Rapids.

Chairman of the theatre committee is Mrs. John Blanchard; director, Mrs. Winston Kellogg; production manager, Miss Rosemary Thompson; stage manager, Mrs. Winthrop Conrad; scenery, Miss Mary Beresford and Mrs. Hilary Dreyfus.

Mrs. Wallace Pringle, Mrs. Carl Underhill and Mrs. Maxwell Peard are in charge of the costumes; Mrs. John Bagby, music; Mrs. Thomas King, properties; Mrs. James E. Duncan, lighting; and Miss Ann McDonald, stage crew.

Miss Lee Bargar, daughter of Mrs. M. R. Liles of Wixom, Mich., drive came down from Michigan State College last weekend to attend the wedding of Miss Linda Ware Gnau and James D. Coulter on Saturday.

Hess-Henshaw Rites Read at Saturday Evening Service

The Rev. W. Glen Harris officiated at the 7-30 o'clock nuptials Saturday of Miss Marjorie Henshaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Henshaw of Ridgedale avenue and Walter B. Hess, Jr., and Mrs. Eugene Hess, also of Ridgedale avenue, are the parents of the bridegroom.

The couple spoke their vows before an altar backed with white snapdragons, gladioli and candelabra in the First Presbyterian church.

Carrying a white orchid upon a white bible, the bride was escorted by the altar by her father. Her gown was white with a chantilly lace top, a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves and a lace bodice. The net skirt was full and with a short sweep in the back and a Juliet cap outlined in seed pearls held her fingertip veil of illusion.

Miss Marion Eberle of Hudson, Mich., was maid of honor in a dark blue tulle gown highlighted with a bustle faced in pink satin. She wore a braided halo of the same material as her dress and carried pink carnations.

The bridesmaids, Miss Elizabeth Henshaw, sister of the bride; Richard Tobias of Akron and Miss Marian Hesse, a sister of the bridegroom were dressed as the honor maid and also carried pink carnation bouquets.

Robert Wale of Toledo, Ohio, acted as the best man and the guests were ushered to their seats by David Campbell of Detroit; Richard Tobias of Akron and Edward Watkins of Birmingham.

For her daughter's nuptials, Mrs. Henshaw wore a fuchsia crepe dress, a black and white

"Whiteheaded Boy" Scheduled as Next Dunstan Production

As its third production of the year, St. Dunstan's Guild of Cranbrook will present "The Whiteheaded Boy" by Lennox Robinson in the Guild's Playhouse at the Cranbrook Pavilion on Lone Pine road.

Dates for the show, which is open to the public, have been set for Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, Feb. 17, 18, and 19.

"The Whiteheaded Boy" is an amusing Irish comedy made famous by Dublin's Abbey Theatre Players in Ireland and on Broadway. It tells the story of the Geoghegan family of Ballycolman who have a youngest son so smart and clever that he is considered the whiteheaded boy—the one member of the family for whom all must make sacrifices so that he can be educated for great things. How he fails to make good as

Greece Became a Marshall Plan Testing Ground

"There can be no hope for the end of the Greek civil war while the international situation remains as it is," stated Dr. Honor Davis in an address at the Birmingham Public Library, Friday night, Jan. 28. His talk was sponsored by the Birmingham League of Women Voters.

Dr. Davis who has spent many years in Greece and is president of Athens College there, said the Marshall Plan even though it is not a 100 per cent success effort, great hope along with the Greek people's vitality and staying power. Most of the Greeks are in sympathy with the Western world although conditions of poverty, lack of food and other necessities are most favorable to revolt and communism, he stated.

Planned Parenthood Workers' Meeting Held Last Night

Mrs. Francis Schilling of Ann Arbor, newly elected president of the Oakland County chapter of the Planned Parenthood and the Rev. Harold E. Towne, clergyman advisor for the Oakland County chapter, were the speakers at the workers' meeting for the 1949 fund-raising drive, held last night, Feb. 2, in the Community House.

The campaign goal is $8,000 for Oakland County. This money will be used to finance the county's three Planned Parenthood centers, in Pontiac, Royal Oak and Oakdale Gardens and to assist the State and National leagues in research and education projects.

Mrs. Howard A. Kaichen was hostess at a tea for Royal Oak workers at her home on Jan. 28. Mrs. Edward E. Rothman, president of the Oakland County Chapter, and Mrs. Stanley Harrison, chairman of the 1949 campaign, were the speakers.

Cost and Purpose
Mrs. Loren C. Sheffield of Pontiac gave a tea for Pontiac workers on Friday, Jan. 28, at the meeting. Mrs. Rothman outlined the history of the organization and Mrs. Harrison explained the goal and purpose of the 1949 fund drive, which opens Feb. 7.

The medical advisory committee for Oakland County chapter of the National League for Planned Parenthood consists of Mrs. S. Lambie, M.D., chairman; Jane Blue, M.D.; Harold A. Furlong, M.D.; Earl W. Spohn, M.D.; Kenneth Stolpmann, M.D. and Helen E. Sutton, M.D.

The clinicians are L. Kizlow, M.D.; Ethelene J. Crockett, M.D.; Jane Blue, M.D.; Arthur Young, M.D. and Joseph Nonachuk, M.D.

Greece, Dr. Davis claimed that it was the poorest country in Europe to start with at the beginning of the war and it ended with the most destruction although there was not as much violence as in some other countries. This gives a natural opportunity, he said, to Russia to build up a revolt which now concerns us as well as Greece.

600 Million Dollars
Greece became a testing ground for the Marshall Plan when Congress passed the act in the spring of 1947 to give aid to Greece and Turkey. There have been many benefits resulting from this aid, Davis reported, such as the rebuilding of the chief harbors, holding the fort on inflation, restoring communications and rebuilding 500 miles of roads. Greece is approximately the size of New York state and its population about that of New York city.

United States has invested 600 million dollars in Greece through the Marshall Plan, but nevertheless conditions in Greece are no better and in some cases worse. The guerrillas are directed from across Greece's border in Russia is desirous of the control of Greece by her harbors, similarly to the way she controls the neighboring countries.

"The Greek army of 206 thousand is quite a drain on Greek economy and the Greek people, but because of the mountainous regions of Greece, can do little in wiping out the rebels," Dr. Davis stated.

FEBRUARY FOURTEENTH
Will it be just a date on the calendar, maybe even a "blue Monday"? Or will you be sending one of our Ob, so eloquent Valentines...

Saint Valentine's Day—Monday, February 14th! There are those who think they've outgrown it. Poor folks. They're getting old, even at twenty... for it's the ever-recurring youthfulness of heart which makes one appreciate such a sentimental opportunity for expressing fondness for another.

There is, after all, nothing quite so precious as love, and friendship. And it should be marked, along life's highway, with assurances of that love, and friendship. Valentine's Day—this centuries-old observance, provides a glorious opportunity to do so.

Especially when you can send the kind of eloquent Valentines now ready for you here.
