CLUB 1930

Let's take a look in our crystal ball and find out what the gang at the 19-30 are doing. Now let's see, oh yes, a closer look and we see, what's this? Chuck Van Fletern and Doris Hoffman really swinging things, and Johnny Day and Shelly Ingalls seem to be doing all right too.

Last Tuesday evening, Jan. 4, the committee for January was selected, Dol Fons, Joyce Stoffregen, Chuck Kleinsmith and Doris Hoffman as chairman. They are making plans for a skating party, toboggan party and for a dinner which is to be given the latter part of the month.

On Thursday the 6th, our crystal ball focused on Don Browney, Pauline Hasse, Paul Henneberry and Bill Moody playing a fast game of pinochle. Jeanne Gibbs, Ellie Fernie, Neil Wakefield seemed to be enjoying a good gab session.

Last Sunday evening Nan Nelson, Barb Kentedy, George York and two of the new members Don Reichel and Gerry Wicks bowled.

GIRL SCOUTS

Annual Meeting Friday

The annual meeting of the Birmingham Girl Scout Council will be held Friday, Jan. 14, at 10 a.m. in the Community House. A quorum-plus attendance is expected as, in addition to all board members, it is anticipated that every troop will be represented by its leaders or troop committee members.

Assists Troop 2

The fifth grade Scouts of Troop 2 meeting at Adams school are putting into practice the advice of Mrs. Jane Decter Rippin, national director of Girl Scouts a quarter of a century ago. Mrs. Rippin advised: "When you want something, always go to the top." To assist them in accomplishing their second class Health and Safety requirements, these Scouts have enlisted the help of registered nurse Mrs. T. L. Luscombe, Jr.

—o—

Finland

When Troop 2 entertained Miss Clara Nordfort at their Christmas tea, they learned to their surprise that there are no private camps in Finland and that everyone depends on Girl Scout camps. Miss Nordfort, who was a Girl Scout in Finland, has been in the United States since September, 1947, and has been a student at the Cranbrook Academy of Art since September, 1948. An extensive outdoor program is the outstanding feature of Finnish Girl Scout camps.

—o—

Girl Scout Fair

If summer seems so far away that the mention of camp stirs up scant interest, here's in intermediate date to mark on the calendar: April 9 from 3 to 6 p.m. is the day of the Girl Scout Fair to be held at the Community House. This will be an exhibit of Scouting in Birmingham and will replace the annual rally. Each troop will participate and further news of this day-long fair will be announced as plans progress.

Levis and Calico Order of the Day for Adams Party

Saturday evening, Jan. 22 at 8:30, the Adams school PTA will open the gates to the school corral for a real western square dance round-up. Tom Ward, publicity chairman for the event has extended an invitation for all members to get into jeans and spurs and buttons and bows. "Amid ranch fences, lanterns, boots and saddles, the guys in levis and the gals in calico will swing their partners in true western atmosphere."

The dance committee, headed by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gougeon and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ward have planned extra surprises in keeping with the Red River trio (River Rouge to you) who will play for the squares.

The calling will be by the Brennans of Cheyenne, Wyo., and the committee announces that dress is optional. "Dress as you are," Ward said, "but if you can dig up a cow poke outfit it will lend color to our party".

"Parents are urged to get Sitting Bull to stay with their little Buckaroos and grab their partners and swing at the Adams school PTA square dance round-up on Jan. 22."
