It Says Here...

By Betsy Drake

Congratulations to the new officers chosen this week by several of the social clubs in order. Elections were held Saturday night by members of Sapphire club, Emerald Key, and Tiara.

New officers of Sapphire club are Norma Lee Kass, president; Roberta Connor, vice president; Barbara Everett, secretary; Souja Rader, treasurer; Suzanne Mason, pledge mistress; Trudy Kurth, historian; and Joan Reule, sergeant-at-arms.

Heading Tiara club for the coming term are Sallie Buck, president; Evelyn Horne, vice president; Virginia Schaffer, treasurer; Sue Hershey, recording secretary; Jean Marson, corresponding secretary; Kay McDonnell, parliamentary; and Pat Bezanon and Betty Conrad, go-historians.

Emerald Key's new officers are Margie Wilson, president; Avis Murphy, vice president; Donna Puls, recording secretary; Elsie Swartwood, corresponding secretary; Helen Woolson, treasurer; Margaret Nordman, historian; and Shirley Quinn, pledge mistress.

BOWLING

By Rodney Smith

The only way to find out what's going on in the better bowling circles is to drop in on our alleys and see first-hand. The better maple knockers tell us that they can pick up "turkeys" on our lanes easier than they can in a poultry market.

The Big Beaver Student Council has elected the following officers: president, Richard Mancho; vice-president, Irvin Sutherland; secretary - treasurer, Dolores Spahr.

The group is made up of two representatives and the class presidents from the seventh through the twelfth grades. They will meet regularly and plan to invite a different teacher to attend each meeting and offer suggestions. Their first problem will be to try to bring about better conduct at pep meetings. Glenn Wooster, principal, is sponsor of the group.

School Notes from Big Beaver

A "Buttons and Bows Harp-tune Dance" will be sponsored by the senior class of Big Beaver High School on Friday, Jan. 14 from 8:30-12:00. Music will be by Don Hering and his orchestra. A prize will be awarded to the person with the oldest clothes. Refreshments will be served by the senior mothers.

The B Club of Big Beaver High recently elected the following, to take office immediately: president, Richard Mouch; vice-president, Jerry Visner; secretary-treasurer, John McFarland; sergeant at arms, James Dorsey.

The club has two projects on which they will work for the rest of the year. The first is the possibility of establishing a separate fund to care for athletic injuries not covered by insurance. The second is the selection of a pin to be presented to each member as he is initiated.

GAA Winter Sports Program Under Way

G. A. A. winter sports are in full swing this week with both swimming and basketball practices being held regularly. The girls are working hard to get ready to compete with other schools.

The Sharks have organized a steering committee to plan their annual water pageant. Sherrill Williams is chairman, assisted by Carolyn Abbott, Sallie Buck, Nancy Howell, Judy Henderson, Lilian Shank, and Nancy Squires. Team members are practicing swimming together, in the pool, and next week will plan routines.

A play day with Royal Oak is scheduled for Feb. 23. There will be competition in speed and synchronized swimming. The first basketball game is tonight with East Detroit.

Feb. 19, 12 girls from each of the schools of the Eastern Michigan League will meet at Mt. Clemens for a play day. The girls will compete in basketball, volleyball, and swimming. Teams will be mixed so that girls from different schools may have a chance to play with each other and become better acquainted.

Candy Cane Caper

The Kingswood School auditorium was the scene of the sophomore dance, the Candy Cane Caper, Saturday evening. Judy Perry was general chairman and supervising the novel decorations was Bea Bard, assisted by Nancy Shile, Marcia Kelley, Lydia Rothman, Jo Stewart, Carlyn Kaiser, Carolyn Kyles, Parti Price and Mary Ann Wales. Candy canes, made and painted by the committee, became musical notes which placed on a musical staff and made effective wall decorations in keeping with the theme.

Sports Showup

By Rick Cunningham

History repeats itself. Bob Folin Maple basketball ace and holder of last year's free throw trophy, awarded each year to the player with the highest percentage of foul shots made during the season's games, outdid himself by successfully scoring 32 straight foul tosses in practice a week ago Wednesday.

The all-time single game score record of 77 points established by Birmingham's 38-39 basketball team met Rochester, who threatened recently in the Maple Bees' game when the Flyers riddled up 41 points.

Did you see the Rose Bowl game? If you did not doubt a drummer in the Northwestern band caught your eye with the rhythmic way in which he raises his sticks. That drummer was Jerry Hughes. It is quite an accomplishment for freshmen to make the ball hit Jerry did it. This speaks well for the experience he received from the three years in the Birmingham marching band.

Tom Allen, another Birmingham graduate, who received his senior football manager for the Wildcats.

Last Friday's was one of the most spirited basketball games played in the Birmingham gym. Although Ferndale won 36-33, they did the Bulldogs' best they could relax. The fact that the Eastern Michigan League trophy may Jerry did it. This speaks well for the experience he received from the three years in the Birmingham marching band.

Local Reserves Win Over Railplitters

By Jack Curley

Showering the Railplitters with a barrage of points in the last half, Birmingham's reserve basketball team smothered the Ferndale reserves 46-26 last Friday night in Birmingham gym.

Although the Maples had considerable trouble penetrating the Railplitters' defense throughout the first half, during the last half it completely folded and the Maples tossed in 31 points.

In a dull first half, both teams displayed poor ball handling and found it difficult to connect. The Maples led 15-9.

Throughout the second half the Maples showered the Railplitters with a deluge of baskets, increasing their margin to 28-17 at the end of the third stanza.

Using every player on the squad, Birmingham hit its peak in the last quarter, tallying 18 points, twice as many as the Railplitters scored, to sew up their first league game.

Birmingham's Tom Nalle cornered the individual scoring honors with 11 markers while 11 Maple players broke into the scoring column. Gate jockey the Railplitters with seven tallies.

Troy Consolidated School Hires Nurse

The Troy Township Consolidated School has hired as its first school nurse, Maud W. Dold, R.N., of Highland Park. She is a graduate of Harper Hospital, Detroit, and is now attending the College of Nursing, at Wayne University, where she will receive her public health certificate.

She served as school nurse for Highland Park since 1937, except for two years in service, and was head nurse for secondary schools there for many years. She will work with the South Oakland Department of Public Health.

Mrs. Dold is a member of the American Nurse Association, National Organization for Public Health Nurses, American School Health Association, Michigan Society for Mental Hygiene, and International Council for Exceptional Children.
