Dr. Stanley A. Cain Will Speak at League of Women Voters Meeting

With interest growing in the conservation of our natural resources, the Birmingham League of Women Voters will turn its attention to conservation problems at its meeting Monday, Jan. 17. Dr. Stanley A. Cain of Cranbrook Institute of Science, will speak on "Our Exhaustible Resources."

Dr. Cain has been at Cranbrook since 1946 is the author of "Foundations of Plant Geography" and numerous scientific articles relating to plant ecology and geography. He is one of 24 international scientists who have been invited to participate in the international plant and geography excursion to Ireland this summer.

Dr. Cain has done graduate work at the University of Chicago, and has taught at the University of Tennessee, Indiana University, the Marine Biological Laboratory at Long Island and the University of Wyoming Science Field School.

Guggenheim Fellowship
In 1940-41 he held a Guggenheim fellowship and worked for several months in the West on western vegetation and allied problems. He has also been the recipient of research grants from the National Academy of Sciences. Dr. Cain was connected with the science section of the U. S. Army

Speech Open to Public

The speech Dr. Cain will deliver to League members is based on facts presented to the American Association for the Advancement of Science in Washington last September. His report at that time was translated and broadcast to foreign countries by the State Department on the "America Speaks" program.

Prior to Dr. Cain's speech, Mrs. Gustavus Pope will give a report on the Hoover committee for reorganization of federal government. Mrs. F. G. G. report at that time will be held at the Community House at 1:30 p. m. and which is open to the public.

Y'Varsity Cagers Win Second Game

Coach Jack Simonds used the two platoon system as he guided the Birmingham YMCA green varsity to its second win, 15-11, in the Metropolitan YMCA League. The victim of the onslaught was the Packer YMCA of Detroit and the final score was 41-38 in favor of the locals.

"Jumping into an early lead, Don Little, Harold Kelley, Roge Reynolds, Al Larsen and Gene Sutton exhibited quite a bit of ball handling in building up a first quarter 12-6 lead. Inability to connect on under-the-basket shots kept the half-time score to 29 to 14 and saw the exodus of the above five as Coach Simonds played an entire new quartet of Walt Allison, Jim Kothe, Lou Hagopian, Stan Peterson and himself during the second half. This five worked well for Birmingham but were outscored 22-21.

Jack Simonds with six baskets led the attack for Birmingham and shared scoring honors with Jack Damian of Fisher who likewise sank 12 points. All Birmingham players figured in the scoring and gave a good exhibition of basketball playing for the 50 spectators who witnessed the game.

Birmingham YMCA opposes Northeastern Y' of Detroit at Barnum Junior High School this evening at 8:00 p. m. There is no admittance charge and the public is invited to attend.

Dates Announced For Birmingham School of Religion

The Birmingham Council of Churches a and the Birmingham YMCA announces the joint sponsorship of the Birmingham School of Religion which opens January 24, and runs six consecutive Monday nights through February 28. Classes will be held at the First Methodist Church from 8:00 until 10:00 p. m. Standard leadership courses of the International Council of Religious Education will be taught with a faculty drawn from local and metropolitan churches.

The printed brochure which is being distributed in the churches this Sunday announces five courses of study. The first is entitled "How the Bible Came to Be" and is being taught by Mrs. John E. Martin of Royal Oak who is the president of the Michigan Council of Churches Women. "Guiding Children in Religious Growth" is a course being offered to teachers and lay workers interested in teaching methods. The instructor is the Rev. Lawrence Long who is the pastor of the First Baptist Church of Birmingham.

"Recreation Leadership" is primarily designed to give religious workers and lay leaders some pointers on recreation as it fits into the total church program. Being taught by Mr. Lynn Russell, a recent newcomer to Birmingham and well known for his So-Ed classes in Seattle, Washington. "Understanding Youth" is a course designed to give religious workers and lay leaders some pointers on recreation as it fits into the total church program. Being taught by Dr. Dwight B. Ireland, superintendent of Birmingham YMCA public school of Birmingham. Being taught by Mrs. Muriel Brusse, Carol Darling, Malcolm Brusse, Ross Wagner and Arnd Goodrich.

Mrs. Stewart Smith of the First Baptist Church will serve as registrar when she accepts the position of the superintendent of the individual Sunday School classes to be held at the Birmingham YMCA at 129 West Maple.

Dean Appoints Staff
The dean of the School of Religion is Edwin F. Kirbert, secretary of the Birmingham YMCA, who has appointed the following people to assist: The Reverend Robert Lawson and the Reverend Edna Knott as co-chairmen of the book display and sales; the Reverend Francis Hoellinger as chairman of the between class devotional period; the Reverend Reginald Becker as chairman of newspaper and church publicity; Miss Julia Kagit, brochure; Mrs. E. K. Schadt, chairman of poster publicity and Mrs. Webster Owen and Miss Helen Bechtel as telephone committee serving Lathrup Townsite and Bloomfield Township.

The cooperating churches are: First Methodist Church, First Presbyterian Church, St. James Episcopal Church, First Baptist Church, Embury Methodist Church, Christ Church of Cranbrook, Franklin Community Church, Kirk-in-the-Hills, and Lathrup Townsite Congregational Church.

More detailed information as to the course content and background of instructors will be given in this paper next week.
