CLUB 1930
Details—always details.
Last Tuesday evening the 11th, our president Johnny Day called a business meeting. Mary Alice Oakley gave the treasurer's report, and Elsie Fernie acting for Jeanne Gibbs read the secretary's minutes. (We all hope that Jeanne is feeling lots better.)

Dorris Huffman, chairman of the January committee, will bring her report on our proposed dinner. It will be known as "Night Club Night" and will be held on Jan. 27, the last Thursday of the month. For the main dish, I believe spaghetti and meat sauce was decided on. Between Bill Mutch, Bill Morrison, Betty Mann, Bob Corvino and Chuck Alan Fournier this grave decision was reached. As for our ice skating and toboggan parties all we need are the ice and the snow.

On last Thursday evening the 13th we saw a few new faces. Billy Walsh, Pat Griffin, Bill Reifer, and Dick Kershner. The pinocle cards and the pool tables were in great demand. Pat and Jim Boucher, Pauline Hasse, and Don Brown were making use of the pinocle cards. As for the pool room the door was closed—visibility zero.

Gay Animal and Bird Balloons Provide Party Centerpiece

Under a canopy of scarlet bows and candy canes, with dancing gingerbread men surrounding the birthday cake, eight young neighborhood friends of Brian Lourin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Lourin of Lakesview avenue, sat down to a candlelight supper in celebration of his eighth birthday. Places were marked with simulated carpet bags filled with candy and tied with miniature canes. The centerpiece consisted of 12 animal and bird balloons encircling crystal candelabra and scarlet candles.

Among the guests were Susan Howell, Patsy Birney, Fleurette Lourin, Terry Hefferan, Timmy Spruence, Joseph Fremont, Billy Bryant, Jay DeBeaubien and Philip Ingraham. Prizes were won by Susan Howell, Phil Ingraham, Patsy Birney and Terry Hefferan. With Mrs. Etue, his teacher, and 33 of his classmates Brian celebrated his big day at school with individual cakes and ice cream.

BIRTHS
Dr. and Mrs. Albert L. Mathews of Wooddale road announce the birth of a son, Richard Charles on Jan. 2.

Pythian Officers
New officers recently installed in the Birmingham Temple 84 Pythian Sisters are past chief, Gladys Magarras; most excellent chief, Pearl Estes; excellent superior, Elvah Lowell; Protector, Fern Smetiz; guard Jill Matice; treasurer, Irene Gifford and secretary, Della Wright.

Miss Jo Laucomer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Laucomer of Lake Park drive, a student at Stephens College, celebrated her 18th birthday on Jan. 13 with a dinner planned by Miss Joan Van Arman. Mrs. Laucomer sent a birthday cake down by air mail for the affair.

Mrs. James Q. Goudie opened her home Monday to members of the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Auxiliary. The group formulated plans for their party on Feb. 2 for the Hospital radium fund.

Dr. Homer Davis to Speak Here Jan. 28

Dr. Homer Davis, president of the University of Athens, Greece, is being presented by the League of Women Voters on Jan. 28 at 8:00 p.m. in the Library. There will be no charge and the speech is open to the public.

Dr. Davis will talk on conditions in Greece. He has had wide experience on the UNRRA, the European Recovery Program and relief work.

Among developments in electrical appliances is a twin waffle baker that makes two full-size waffles at a time.

Phyllis Jean Fox
Miss Phyllis Jean Fox of Detroit, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Graham Webster of Essex, Ont., has completed plans for her marriage to Roswell Goodrich Curtis, Jr., the son of Mrs. R. G. Curtis and the late Mr. Curtis of North Woodward avenue. The Rev. Robert L. DeWitt will

Class of 1949

To be graduated this year from school, college or university means that the graduates will face a very challenging world—a world such as will require much in ability, courage and character.

It seems to us, therefore, that this year's graduates deserve the utmost encouragement and those assurances of staunch friendship which, long after the graduate has been handed his or her diploma, will be recalled with bracing satisfaction. The knowledge that there are friends who can be counted on, if need be, means much.

When your assurance is made vocal with a LaBelle Gift it helps greatly to make yours an unforgettable expression of much friendship. We also can offer a wonderful assortment of Graduation Greeting Cards.
