At last it's out! The program for the Jan. 31 PTA meeting will be the Rev. W. Glen Harris, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Birmingham whose subject will be "Is There Hope for Our Civilization?" Dr. Harris attended the world conference of churches at Amsterdam and traveled extensively in Europe gathering lecture material. The meeting is open to the whole community and will be held at the town hall at 8 p.m.

The adult discussion group will meet at Mr. and Mrs. Hugh White's on Sunday, Jan. 23.

Aborning is a new organization, an off-shoot of the Friendly Circle but tailor-made of those women in the community who find afternoon meetings impossible. This group is open to all who have children under the first grade, who work during the day or who otherwise can't get out to regular circle meetings. A nucleus group met at Mrs. E. C. Lewis on Thursday, Jan. 13. Representing the circle were Mrs. J. J. Morse, Mrs. Charles Brown and Mrs. William Lavejoy who discussed the problems of organization with Mrs. Robert Mitchell, Mrs. Lew Fraser, Mrs. L. P. Barr, Mrs. W. A. Schleich and Mrs. Lewis. Mrs. Donald Tracy will also work on this committee. The first general meeting will be held this Thursday, Jan. 20, at the home of Mrs. Robert Mitchell on Riverwood. The time is 8:30 p.m.

The very first donation for the new record library came from the

Fraser children and is a set of Prokofiev's "Peter and the Wolf."

Cub den mothers met Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Ken Nichols in the third of a series of seven classes on Cub work. Chet Hard, cubmaster, is in charge of the meetings.

The members of the youth group who didn't have to study for finals had a fine time Sunday night square dancing. But again there were not enough out for the election of officers. They'll try again next week when the group meets at the home of Bill Kanold in the village.

It is amazing what happens to the crowd that thinks it's fun to hold the fire hose when they're trying it out... when it's time to take the equipment back, clean it up and put it away.

All officers and committee chairmen will meet on Friday night at 8 o'clock at the town hall. Among other things, plans will be completed for the first big Cub Pack meeting which is scheduled for Thursday night, Jan. 27.

There was a reception of new members at the Franklin community church on Sunday, Jan. 16. Bringing their letters were the Mr. and Mrs. Donald Tracy, Mr.

and Mrs. L. P. Barr, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Schleich and Mrs. Schleich's mother, Mrs. L. Halfaker.

Ann White celebrated her birthday on Wednesday, Jan. 19, with a party at her home on Wellington road. There were games, movies and plenty of eats. Guests were Doreen Lowejoy, Barbara Haworth, Fay Kittle, Barbara Neil, Judy Fricker, Jean Raulander, Joan Tillotson, Ann Seymour, Christine Lewis, Sue Roseberry, Judith Mitchell, Sharon Byers, Joan and Jan Heneker and Steve White of Franklin, and Gayle McKinley, Nancy and Patty Dowd and Mrs. Lilione Schadt of Birmingham.

Minor Falsifies Age, Hills Inn Pays Fine

John W. Ingleson, proprietor of the Fox and Hounds Inn, Bloomfield Hills, was fined $150 after a hearing in Detroit before the Liquor Control Commission recently. The establishment was found guilty of having served a minor on September 18, 1948, but because it was disclosed in the hearing that the minor had shown papers to the bartender which reputedly proved him to be of age, a suspension for thirty days of the Inn's Class "C" liquor license was suspended.
