

Metropolitan Club Installs Officers

The Metropolitan Club and Auxiliary Spirit No. 9 of Birmingham held joint installation with Ferndale, Hazel Park and Lincoln Park in the American Legion Hall in Royal Oak on Jan. 15.

The installing officer for the auxiliary was Julia Rooks, national president, who was assisted by Audrey Kemp, national recording secretary.

The new officers for the coming year are Mrs. Ann Tolin, president; Mrs. Violet Ellison, vice-president; Mrs. Leah MacGregor, recording secretary; Mrs. Edith White, financial secretary; Mrs. Jean Cary, treasurer; Mrs. Maxine Foltz, sergeant at arms; Mrs. Mary Webb, chaplain; Mrs. Hazel Lawler, senior auditor; Mrs. Marguerite Mellem, two year auditor; and Mrs. Margaret Haack, three year auditor.

Gifts and corsages were presented to the outgoing officers and dancing and refreshments followed the ceremony.

About five per cent of all eggs produced (about two billion eggs annually) become inedible or are broken on their way from producer to consumer.

Players to Entertain Guests After Show

Mrs. J. S. Hodges and Mrs. E. C. Higgins will have charge of make up, when the Village Players present the Norma Krassa comedy, "John Loves Mary," on Jan. 26 and 29 and Feb. 4 and 5. Others who will handle the technical end of the production include R. W. Brown, chief electrician; Mrs. John Hammond and Sidney Oldberg, scenery; Charles Blunt, stage manager; John H. Spittato, photographer; Mrs. G. H. Fox, ticket sales. The sets were designed by Mrs. W. Carlston Scott.

Mary McKinley will be played by Mrs. William Porter; Oscar Dugan, Allan Lutz; John Lawrence, V. W. Greene; Fred Taylor, James S. Hodges; Sen. James McKinley, Walter Herdrick; Mrs. Phyllis McKinley, Mrs. Ray Ammerman; L. Victor O'Leary, Sidney Oldberg; George Beechwood, Ralph Trout; Lily Herbish, Mrs. Robert Aldrich and Harwood Biddle by George Shepherd.

This presentation is an open show, for players and their guests. At the Jan. 28 performance the boards of neighboring players' groups and members of the Newcomers Club, with their husbands, will be guests of the players at an after-glow.
