

Campers Gather for Annual Winter Reunion Sunday

The annual mid-winter camp reunion for Mah-go-tah-see campers will be held at the Pontiac YMCA, Sunday afternoon Jan. 30 at 3:00 p.m. Invitations have been extended to all old campers and many new ones. It is sincerely hoped that parents will come with the boys. The all color camp movie, with its latest sequences, plus a short comedy will be shown. Many of last year's staff and counselors, who have also signed up again for this year, will be present, thus affording parents, who have not already done so, the opportunity to meet the personnel of the camp. A magician will also entertain and light refreshments will be served by some of the mothers of the boys. Campers have been signing up for the 1949 season since the middle of December and the new campers in this group, even though this may be their first season, are welcome to attend the reunion.

The dates for the regular boys' camp in 1949 are: First period June 29 to July 13; second period July 13 to July 27; third period July 27 to Aug. 10; fourth period Aug. 10 to Aug. 24. The camp itself will open May 16 and close October 30 with schools, church and service clubs using the facilities before and after the regular camp periods.

Members of the board of directors of Camp Mah-go-tah-see, Oakland County YMCA Camp, Inc., are John D. Maynard, president; James C. Covert, vice-president; Samuel J. Lang, treasurer; Maurice F. Cole, secretary; Kinsell Bassett, Conrad N. Church, Judge Arthur E. Moore, T. Edward Nelson, Dr. John K. Ormond, Ernest W. Steinhilb and Charles J. Shain.

Bob Hall Guest of Kiwanians

A combined meeting of representative members of some 10 Kiwanis Clubs in the Birmingham vicinity is planned by the local organization under the direction of Kiwanis president, Tom Ward, for this Tuesday, Feb. 1 in the Community House at 6:30 p.m.

Dick Hawkins, an inter-club relations chairman, has arranged for "binge squadrons" to be on hand from Pontiac, Southfield, West Bloomfield, Royal Oak, Ferndale, Rochester, B. J. Ford, Farmington, Northwest and College Park Clubs.

The occasion which prompts the desire by each club to attend is the personal appearance of Bob Hall, once and radio star. His appearance is arranged by special consent from his sponsor through Kiwanian Ken Hoover.

"We are very fortunate and happy to present Bob Hall at our regular Tuesday night dinner meeting," Hoover said. He urges all Kiwanians to be on hand as a reception committee for Hall and visiting Kiwanians.

Further plans of program chairman, Tony D'Agostino for coming events at the Community House are the Kiwanis ladies' Valentine night, Tuesday, Feb. 15; father and son banquet, Tuesday, March 8; the birthday dinner dance on Tuesday, April 26; the Southeastern Michigan District conference on Tuesday, May 24 and the family party, Tuesday, June 7.

Embury Holds Lead In Church League

Embury Methodist stayed out in front of the Church teams playing in the YMCA Church league with a 17-3 win over the boys in the golden jerseys from Lathrup Township Community Church. The south Woodward boys held Lathrup to nary a field goal while they sank seven baskets and three foul shots to stay in front for the entire game.

Little Jerry Wedge was the defensive star for Embury and gave a good exhibition of ball handling. Harry Sudden scored two baskets and then fed the ball to Hore Reynolds, at the post position, who dropped in eight points for the high score of the game. Art Cobb and Chuck Stuart played well for Lathrup Community Church.

St. James Episcopal Church rolled over First Presbyterian 60 to 10 in a game in which the Presbyterian boys could not score during the first half of play. Tim Reed and Charles Thomas battled each other for scoring honors with Reed coming out on top. His 10 baskets and 20 point total surpassed Thomas' 18 points by one basket.

Evening's Thriller

In the thriller of the evening, First Baptist Church forfeited their game to First Methodist and then picked up three players to give First Methodist quite a tussle but finally succumbed 31 to 30. Keith Little and Barry Harper scored 22 points between them mostly on dog shots from the side.

Jim Torres, substituting for a player from the First Baptist Church, hit for 14 points from the floor. First Baptist led 18 to 11 at the half; 22 to 19 at the end of the third quarter and had tied the score at 28 all in the closing seconds of play.

Darrell Kelley's basket was matched by Torres. As Barry Harper moved in to take the rebound, he was fouled and sank his lone shot to give the Maple Avenue boys their margin of victory.

Knorr Wins $2,500 For Designing Chair

Donald R. Knorr of Bloomfield Hills has been announced as the winner of the first prize in the recent international competition for the design of low cost furniture. Knorr has just returned from New York where he received his $2,500 award at a banquet given for the winners last week. He shared first honors with Prof. Georg Lewald of Germany.

Knorr, a navy veteran, designed a chair, which will go into production at once.

The contest, which drew more than 3,000 entries from 31 countries, was sponsored by the Museum of Modern Art and the Museum Design Project, Inc. Nelson Rockefeller, president of the Museum of Modern Art, said the aim of the contest was to inspire designers to specialize in creating low-cost furniture that would have good looks, comfort and be serviceable.

New Color Movies of Michigan to Be Shown This Sunday

New color motion pictures, filmed last summer of "Touring Glorious Michigan," will be shown in a World Adventure Series public lecture at 3:30 next Sunday afternoon, Jan. 30, at the Detroit Institute of Arts. Dennis Glen Cooper, Detroit-born explorer and world traveler, will appear in person with his pictures.

Cooper's pictures present a complete tour of Michigan's coastline, principal highways, and vacation and scenic spots of both the upper and lower peninsulas. There are visits to Isle Royale and Mackinac Islands, the Soo and the Straits, Tahquamenon and other waterfalls, Blaney Park, the Dunes, a canoe trip down the Au Sable.

Among other highlights: Port Austin and Pointe Aux Barques, the "Snows," Hubbard Lake, the Porcupine Mountains, Munising and Marquette, the Copper Country, Leelanau beauty spots, Harwick Pines, Holland's Tulip Festival.

Birmingham Federal Reelects Directors; Notes Steady Growth

Clyde C. Bennett, Emerson C. Brown, Emory O. Hutton, John Mackay, John McKee, Walter L. Moreland, Ralph Moulthrop, Howard M. Warner and Charles N. Zelman were reelected directors of the Birmingham Federal Savings and Loan Association last Wednesday night.

Officers elected for the coming year are Brown, chairman; Moreland, president; Zelman, vice-president; H. E. Johnson, assistant vice-president and Miss Haze/ E. Lawler, secretary and treasurer. Johnson represents the only change in this personnel. He has been with the local office for the past 25 years.

Moreland reported that during 1948 they had written up slightly over one million dollars in loans, with about half of this going to veterans under the GI act.

They had about $150,000 entered into the savings department during the past year, when $44,000 was paid out in earnings in this department.

Mary Kemp Elected CTA Club President

At a meeting of the CTA Club last Thursday in the Biddie-Edgemoor home of Peg Perkins, new officers of the group were elected.

Mary Kemp was named president; Carolyn Metzger, vice-president; Sue Pomeroy, recording secretary; Sam Mosley, corresponding secretary; Jane Malloy, treasurer; Mrs. Adams, publicity; Nancy Howell, posters; Virginia Darr, flowers and Audrey Engle, sports.

The new president's first duty was the initiation of a new honorary member, Margie Thayer.

Barnum Pool Opened To Y Club Swimmers

Walter Morgan, chairman of the physical education committee of the YMCA, stated arrangements have been made with the Birmingham Board of Education for the YMCA club groups to use the Barnum Junior high school swimming pool Wednesday evenings.

There will be two periods of one hour each. The first is for members of the G. Y. Jr. H. Y. and H. Y. clubs meeting from 7:00 until 8:00 p.m. The second period of one hour which follows is for adults and out of high school young people.

Both periods will feature swimming for fun and class instruction will not be given. However arrangements can be made with the Birmingham YMCA for this.

Richard Miller, a senior Red Cross and YMCA examiner, will be in charge of the pool. Miss Shirley Cloutier will be in charge of the girls and the building will be supervised by Edwin F. Kirby, executive secretary of the local Y. Residents of Birmingham are invited to participate in this activity.
