More on the Jan. 31 PTA meeting. Besides the Rev. W. Glen Harris speaking on "Is There Hope for Our Children?" the committee is planning some lighter moments with Tony Weitzel on hand to help things along. Re-member, at the town hall on Monday evening at 8 o'clock. You are all invited.

There were 22 out for the first meeting of the Friendly Circle evening group. It was decided that Mrs. Robert Mitchell, Mrs. Lee Fraser, Mrs. L. P. Barr, Mrs. W. A. Schach, Mrs. E. C. Lewis, and Mrs. Donald Tracy would constitute an executive board until the organization is fully formed. They plan to elect officers in the spring at a time to coincide with the circle elections. The women decided on the third Thursday evening of the month as the meeting time. The first meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Donald Tracy on Feb. 17. Next, each guest drew a slip of paper on which was written a four word quotation. The women whose words formed small groups to discuss possible programs and other matters essential to a new organization. These suggestions were collected for further study by the committee and the business meeting broke up in favor of tea, coffee and cookies.

The executive board of the Friendly Circle will meet with the six-woman committee of the newly formed evening group to go over organizational details tonight. The meeting will take place at the home of Mrs. W. A. Schach on Coral Drive.

William Barr of Birmingham, community club commissioner, was the speaker at the meeting for officers and committee chairman for the Franklin Club group last Friday evening. Barr explained the various committee duties, emphasized how they worked together in a planned program and suggested a yearly outline. Plans were rounded out for the first big pack meeting to be held tonight, Jan. 27, at the town hall. The 40 new Cubs will be awarded their Bob-Cat pins at this time. The next pack committee meeting was set for Friday, Feb. 4. Announcement was made of a six weeks course for Cub leaders and committee men to be held each Wednesday, starting Feb. 16, at 7:30 at the Parker school on 13 1/2 Mile road, one block west of Woodward avenue.

Among those attending the school of religion series sponsored by the Birmingham council of churches are Mrs. L. P. Barr, Mrs. Kenneth Bristol, Mrs. Harold Roseberry, Mrs. Faye Hauk, Mrs. Cliff Baugh, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Tracy, Mrs. Albert C. Carr and
