AAUW Scholarship Tea is Scheduled for February 16

A fashion show, followed by a bridge and tea, will be sponsored by the Birmingham branch of the AAUW on Feb. 16 at 2:00 p.m. in the Community House.

The event is being held for the benefit of the scholarship fund which will aid some girl in continuing her education. This marks the third consecutive year that this function has been given by this local organization.

Mrs. Ralph B. Beebe is general chairman for the affair and assisting her as committee chairmen are Mrs. Kenneth Swartwood, tickets; Mrs. Herbert Wood, table decorations; Mrs. Ray Giffels, tea arrangements; Mrs. J. Q. Holmes, Mrs. L. C. Goad and Mrs. R. C. Davies, prices and Mrs. Ross Wagner, bridge tables.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Kenneth Swartwood.

Mrs. Hewlett Guest Speaker At AAUW Child Study Club

Mrs. Thomas Hewlett will address a meeting of the AAUW Child Study Club on Tuesday, Feb. 1 at 8:00 p.m. in the Mary Griffith Lounge of the Community House. She will use as her subject, "Creative Work for Children" and will also show a movie entitled "A Day at Children's House."

Mrs. Hewlett came from Canada at the invitation of Mrs. Edsel Ford to organize and direct a children's art center called the Children's House of which she was director from 1926 until her resignation in 1945.

Earn Certificates

Recent recipients of their Pythian Club certificates were Mrs. Annie Smith of Watkins street and Mrs. Gladys Madaras.

Officers are Elected at Newcomers Club Meeting

The Newcomers Club celebrated its 10th anniversary at its monthly luncheon, Jan. 25, in the Community House. In its first year, Newcomers Club has grown from a nucleus of 50 to an active membership of 150 with a calling list of 600.

Tables were decorated by Mrs. Ted Luderowski and her committee. Blue centerpieces, candles and bowls of red and white carnations rested on center strips of red crepe paper. Smaller red and white candy came tied with red bows were place favors. A large birthday cake with one candle was the centerpiece at the officers' table.

During the luncheon and meeting, John Bourque of Detroit who is associated with the Welcome Wagon took his own candle as host of the group.

New Officers

Following the treasurer's report by Mrs. J. R. Worthington and the secretary's report by Mrs. Stuart Shell, the president, Mrs. Grant Bailey, introduced the retiring board of directors.

Mrs. Richard H. Hatch, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the slate of officers for 1949. The slate, which was unanimously elected, will serve for the next 6 months: president, Mrs. Robert Westcott; vice-president, Mrs. Homer Hank; secretary, Mrs. George L. Dunville and treasurer, Mr. Ernest W. Miller.

The subject of permanent name cards for members of Newcomers Club came up for discussion, and Mrs. Bailey named the investigating committee to investigate prices and materials, and report at the next meeting; Mrs. Harry Hopp, chairman; Mrs. Harold Couzens, Mrs. Lloyd Diehl and Mrs. James Smith.

Mrs. William Burlingame will be chairman of the program for the February meeting. Using "What's New For You" as the theme, there will be exhibits from local merchants of what is new on the market. Guests are asked to bring any ideas or new things which they have originated at home themselves, and awards will be given for the best entries. Articles and ideas, which should be carefully written out, should be placed with the judges before 12 o'clock on the day of the next luncheon.

The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. Westcott as the incoming president. Questionnaires were filled out by each guest to determine interests of the various members and contributions which they might be able to make to club activities.
