Maples Face Tough Ferndale Team On Local Court Friday

By Bob Folin

Here tomorrow night to meet the Maples in their first league game of the season, Ferndale brings an experienced quintet that expects to finish high in the league basketball standings.

The Raisers'll have four returning lettermen, including Harry Lauder, high scoring guard, and Jack Crittendon, a good backboard man who graduated at the half year.

Ferndale has won one game and lost two, defeating Ann Arbor 42-26 in the opening game of the season, and then losing two in the pre-season Eastern Michigan League tourney, one to Port Huron 48-32, and the other to Hamtramck 36-34.

Birmingham has won three and lost one, downing Hamtramck 53-39, Royal Oak 64-19, and the Alumni 30-17, but losing a close contest to Port Huron 55-53 in the pre-season tourney.
