Gloria Jean Maxwell Becomes Bride of Robert L. Jessup

St. James Episcopal Church was the setting on Dec. 30 for the marriage of Miss Gloria Jean Maxwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Spooner Maxwell of Elmwood avenue and Robert Louis Jessup, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Jessup of Hanna street are the bridegroom's parents. The rites were read by the Rev. Harold E. Towne

Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Koch of Charlottesville, Va., were the holiday houseguests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Booth of Martell drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Omar Hansen entertained their many friends and neighbors at a cocktail party in their East Southland home on New Year's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wolf of Graefield spent the New Year's weekend in New Britain, Conn. Mrs. Wolf drove their children, Barbara and J. Parker back to their schools, Westbrook Junior College and Williston Academy and was joined later in the east by Mr. Wolf. His mother, Mrs. Charles Wolf has returned to Birmingham with them for a visit.

Candlelight and strains of Christmas music were the order of the evening at the Community House on Dec. 30 when Mrs. Mae Rupp entertained for her grand daughter, Miss Patricia. Before, sixty of Patricia's friends danced from until 12. Chaperoning the party were Patricia's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Moss and their friends, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Gannon of Northwood.

On New Year's Eve, Mr. and Mrs. Harrie W. Bird of Bloomfield Hills were hosts to members of their family at a party in the Oakland Hills Country Club. George Bird has returned to his studies at Cornell University after spending the holidays here with his family.

David Van Dusen, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Theron Van Dusen of Puritan road, a member of the Princeton University crew, participated in an invitational regatta in Palm Beach, Fla., last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Houle of Etowah road have returned from Muskegon, Mich., where they spent New Year's with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley Purton entertained at a cocktail party and buffet supper in their Chesterfield road home last Sunday.

Well, now that the busy and exciting holiday season is over, many things will settle back to normal again.

At the 19-30 Club Tuesday and Thursday evenings the 28th and 30th there was serious business going on. Whereas and to what just when, where and what we were going to do on New Year's Eve, Bill Morrison and Bob Erwin must have given out with a little magic. Thanks to them we had a terrific party and everyone had a wonderful time.

At one minute to midnight the lights were dimmed and everyone waited for the fatal hour of 12:00. Among the happy New Year crew were, to mention a few, Jerry Wright, Ellie Fernie, Jeanne Gibbs, Betty Mann, Bill Mutch, and John Day.

Many thanks to Fauling Hasse for a wonderful time had by everyone at her open house last Sunday evening.

Former Resident Becomes Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kotelman of Clanton, formerly of Birmingham, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Shirley to Grant Sutton, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Sutton of Clanton.

There are no immediate plans for the wedding.

Cranbrook Trio Will Be Presented by the Birmingham Musicales

The Cranbrook Instrumental Ensemble will present a program of classic, modern and impressionistic music at the Jan. 13 meeting of the Birmingham Musicales.

Axel Magnuson, violin; William Casey, clarinet and flute, and Robert Bates, piano, comprise the ensemble. Their program of classic music includes the Vach Trio Sonata in G Flat; Beethoven Sonata in G Major and Mozart Trio #2 in E Flat Major.

The modern school is represented by Paul Hindemith's Sonata (1936) performed by William Casey and Robert Bates. A group of Silhouettes by Paul Juen for flute, violin and piano completes the program and is of the impressionistic school.

Studied with Nichols
Magnuson has studied under

Marie Nichols of Boston, Mass., and attended Boston and New York Universities. He is a member of the music faculty of Cranbrook school.

Casey received his degree in music education and master of arts degree at the Ohio State University. He is director of music at Brookside school.

Bates, a graduate of Harvard University, is also a member of the music faculty of Cranbrook school.

Chairman of the day will be Mrs. Norman Lyle. Mrs. Carl Moyer and Mrs. A. E. Ebersole will be hostesses and the tea committee, headed by Mrs. Hilmer Carlson, includes Mrs. Shelton Wright, Mrs. Elmore Wollering, Mrs. John Maynard, Mrs. Carson Dalton and Mrs. Clifford Dunn.
