KEEPING HOUSE by Norma Crane FAMOUS HOME ECONOMIST

The simplest way to sew the fingertip of torn or worn-out gloves is to drop one of Junior's marbles into the finger of the glove and use it as you would a darning egg. . . . When grating carrots, leave about an inch of the green top on the carrot. This will act as a handle for you to grasp and will keep your fingers from getting skinned on the grater.

Ever try to remove whole pecan meats from the shell? Quite difficult to keep them from breaking up. Here's the trick that solves the difficulty: soak the nuts for several hours in a quart of water and 1 tablespoon of salt. The shells will soften up so that you can easily break them by hand.

Smart business serve. Cadillac Bread along with their special salad or casserole. It tastes as though it's an elaborate preparation but actually it's very simple.

Cut a loaf of French or Vienna bread into thick slices but do not cut entirely through into the bottom crust. Mash a clove of garlic until entirely disintegrated, then mash this into 3 or 4 tablespoons of butter or margarine. Spread this garlic butter between the slices. Bread then pop the loaf into the oven (350 - 375 F.) until very hot and crispy.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT. We have no more right to consume happiness without producing it, than to consume wealth without producing it. . . . George Bernard Shaw.

A LITTLE OF THIS AND THAT. The mail box has the new look, what with its transparent plastic front, gaily colored back and anti-theft device. The clever idea which one of my neighbors recommends is that of clipping new or interesting notices and tacking two or three of them inside the door of her kitchen cupboard. She then reads them as she uses them often. When she knows them by heart, she replaces them with a few new ones. . . . What to give the bride the first time you visit her new home? The answer is to bring her a tin of tin box, in a gay kitchen color, with her new initials printed on top of it.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK. For the woman who goes to business and prepares the evening meal for two, this is inexpensive and rapid to make. If you're cooking for more than two, just multiply the quantities to suit the number of people you wish to feed.

Simple Stuffed Peppers 1/3 cup rice 1/2 teaspoon salt 1 can chopped meat (baby or junior food)

1/2 cup pepper, garlic salt 1/2 teaspoon curry powder 2 green peppers a little bacon fat or butter bread crumbs and paprika

Boil the rice in 1 quart water to which the salt has been added. Cook until soft (about 25 minutes) or if pressure pot is used, cook for about 15 minutes. Wash peppers, split, remove center core and seeds. Cook in boiling water for about 15 minutes until tender. Heat the oven to 350°.

When the rice has finished cooking, mix with well drained water, drain, and steam over boiling water until dry and fluffy. Mix with the meat and seasonings, add bread crumbs and paprika, and place in a shallow greased pan to bake for 10 minutes at 350° F. Serve either plain or with tomato cheese sauce.

Tomato Cheese Sauce 3/4 cup milk 1/2 teaspoon butter 3 or 4 tablespoons melted yellow cheese 1/4 cup tomato paste

Combine and heat the above in a sauce pan until smooth and well blended. Four or five stuffed peppers.

DO YOU KNOW? You can buy an aluminum unit for the broiler which is really grand for broiling small portions such as a single chop. It keeps the stove clean and saves you a lot of work. You can put one or several powers into a water-tight glass globe with a screw-on plastic cap, and get the most surprising effect. The globe magnifies the size and intensifies the color and beauty of the flowers. They'll stay fresh much longer when kept this way, too.

Have You Met . . . Mr. and Mrs. Harland G. Aalter of Cleveland, Ohio, and their children, Mary, Caroline, and Elizabeth, Margaret Carter and Virginia and Christina Aalter, now making their home at 319 Putnam? Mr. Aalter is with Parade Publications.

National Farm and Garden Group to Meet on Jan. 11

George Palbert of Gross Pointe, horticulturist, has chosen as his subject, "Let's Make a Cottage" when he speaks to members of the Birmingham branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association at their regular monthly meeting in the Community House on Jan. 10. A luncheon will be served at 12:15. Mrs. Ernest W. Seaholm, chairman of the day and Mr. Walter Lotz is assisting her as co-chairman. On their arrangements committee are Mrs. C. P. Hogg, Mrs. L. W. Morley, Mrs. Davina Van Dusen, Mrs. J. S. Wintering and Mrs. F. J. Zoellin. Members of the organization will also give brief talks on the rare birds attracted by their feeding stations. Agricultural leaders estimate that electrically-operated equipment has enabled farmers to grow a third more crops in 10 per cent less time.

WITH THE COLLEGIANS

On Dec. 17, Graham H. Hanna of Buckingham road received his bachelor's degree from the University of Chicago.

Ruth Kadell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kadell, 836 Lakeview, has recently been pledged to Kappa Epsilon, national pharmaceutical honorary. Miss Kadell, a sophomore at Purdue University is affiliated with Chi Omega sorority.

Word comes from Bradford Junior College that Miss Suzanne Anderson and Miss Katherine M. Daeschner took part in the Christmas pageant which was presented at the college as part of the Christmas activities. Miss Suzanne Bennett, Miss Elizabeth Keller, Miss Beverly Whiting and Miss Joan Patten were members of the glee club which sang at the pageant. Miss Bennett is secretary of the freshman class and Miss Whiting is a member of the house committee at the college.

An electric vacuum bottle, designed to bring a pint of water to a boil in a few minutes, shut off automatically and keep liquid a few degrees below boiling indefinitely, is now available.

The J. L. Hudson Company Invites You to See Its ART COLLECTION of Approximately 100 Paintings by Ten of America's Leading Artists Depicting Contemporary Life in Michigan ON EXHIBITION at The Museum of the Cranbrook Academy of Art Bloomfield Hills Jan. 11 through Jan. 23 "Michigan on Canvas" Exhibition Hours: 2 to 5 P.M. Daily (Museum closed Mondays, open Sundays) In October, 1946, The J. L. Hudson Company, through Associated American Artists, of New York City, commissioned ten of America's leading artists to do a series of paintings which would permanently record present-day life in Michigan. The ten artists selected were chosen by a committee of seven Michigan art museum directors. "Michigan on Canvas" had its premier showing at the Hudson store and is now on an extensive tour of the state. Practically every phase of life in Michigan has been interpreted by the artists and we hope that all who can will come in and enjoy the collection. Following its exhibition here, the collection will be shown in many other Michigan cities. There is no admission charge, of course.
