Converse-Caryl Rites Are Read Friday Evening

Upon their return from a northern wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Converse will make their home at 608 1/2 Woodward avenue. Mrs. Converse is the former Jacqueline Caryl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Caryl of Watkins street, and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Converse of Franklin are the bridegroom's parents.

The couple were united in marriage Friday evening at 7:00 o'clock by the Rev. Arnold Runkel in an informal ceremony for members of the family at the First Methodist Church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was in white organza of ballerina length. The gown was styled with cap sleeves, and a high neckline which was bordered with a soft ruffle. She wore a white picture hat with a white velvet trim that was also featured on the dress. Her bridal bouquet was made up of white gladiolus and white organza mits with velvet bows completed her ensemble.

Miss Joann Lancomer of Birmingham was maid of honor in pink organza. Burgundy toned carnations were in a headband in her hair and she carried a matching bouquet.

Serving his brother as best man was Vernon Converse, Jr.

For the ceremony and reception which followed in the Converse-Franklin Hills residence. Mrs. Caryl wore a white and gold merley gown, a rhubarum lilie corsage and white accessories. Mrs. Converse was in blue crepe. Her flowers were rhubarum lilies and her accessories were white also.

For traveling, the bride selected a navy blue suit with white accessories.

Miss Roosevelt Will be Married On September 17

Mrs. Dorothy Kemp Roosevelt of Dorchester road has announced the engagement of her daughter, Diana to Agar Jaicks, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson A. Jaicks of Lake Forest, Ill. The couple will be married on September 17 in a home ceremony.

Miss Roosevelt attended George Washington University and her fiancé was recently graduated from the same school.

On Saturday, Mrs. Ralph L. Polk entertained at a luncheon for the bride-elect at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club. Among the guests were Mrs. Roosevelt, Mrs. Ralph L. Polk, Jr., Miss Martina McKinney, Miss Mary Welch, Miss Virginia McKinney, Miss Patricia Sweeney, Mrs. Harold Watts, Mrs. Carl Blauman, Mrs. James Herbst and Mrs. Richard Ernst.

"Rocks and Shoals." Articles for Government of the Navy, was the best printed document on the U. S. Navy.

PROTECTED BY GLASS—Tomato plants of D. J. Palumbo, of Dunmore, Pa., were sheltered from fatal chilling this year by a novel idea. One-gallon glass jugs with the bottoms removed were placed over the plants without a stopper. Jugs were removed as soon as the temperature climbed to a safe point.

Social Briefs

Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Wise of Williamsbury road entertained Mr. and Mrs. William Holler of Mt. Dora, Fla., formerly of Birmingham; Mrs. Nicholas Dreyfuss and Mr. and Mrs. John G. Wood at a dinner party in the Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett H. Wells of Arlington road will be hosts to thirty of their friends at a breakfast party this coming Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Wilson are now settled in their new home at 19370 Everette drive. They formerly resided at 646 Puritan road.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Quinn, Jr., will be making their home at Bakers Field, Calif., from now on. Mrs. Quinn and her son, Michael are leaving tomorrow for the west coast to join Mr. Quinn who preceded his family out there some weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. White of Rivenook road have returned from ten day vacation at Crystal Lake. Mrs. White's mother, Mrs. C. N. Guyer of Denver, Col., is here now visiting with them.

HUCK FINN—A pair of ragged overalls, frayed straw hat, corn-cob pipe, fishing pole and a can of worms were all 8-year-old Lee Van Hook needed to win first prize in the Huckleberry Finn contest at Annual Kids' Day in Rogers, Ark. A bountiful crop of freckles and a wide smile edged over his nearest rival.

Rites Performed in St. Augustine Chapel

St. Augustine Chapel of Canterbury College, Danville, Ind., was the scene of the wedding of Mrs. Hione C. Schadt of Birmingham and the Rev. William O. Homer of Baldwin, Mich., Tuesday, July 12 at 10 a.m. The nuptial mass was read by the Rev. Douglas MacLaurin, president of the college.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Fred W. Catterall of Austin, Texas, and was attended by her two daughters, Miss Hione C. Schadt of Danville, Ind., and Miss Elizabeth B. Schadt of Birmingham. Irwin T. White of Franklin served as best man.

Guests included Mrs. Howard Cousins of Birmingham; Miss

Mary Gilliam of Ferradale; Mr. and Mrs. Irvin T. White of Franklin; Mrs. Florence Homer, mother of the groom, and his two sisters, Mrs. Keith Drake of Glencoe, Ill., and Mrs. Virginia Kern of Los Angeles, Calif.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Old Trail Inn.

Mrs. Homer until recently has been director of religious education at St. James' Episcopal Church here.
