Lots of Newcomers

If you've gotten behind on your HAVE YOU MET? calling you'd better get busy. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carly are in their new house at the corner of Wing Lake and Fourteen mile roads. Mr. Carly, better known to many ex-Northwesterners as "Red", has been athletic director at Cass Technical High School in Detroit. Mrs. Carly is in charge of girl's work at Northwestern High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Joynea are in their home on Thirteen mile road. Mr. and Mrs. Joynea have owned their property for a number of years but the war held up their building. However, they have spent much time developing it and Mr. Joynea, who is in the construction and excavating business, feels well acquainted as his company have put in the foundations of so many of the houses around here.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rottiers are also in their new home. Mrs. Rottiers is the Jaynes' daughter. The Rottiers have two children, two and a half and five.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Barr are in their home on Meadowdale which they bought from the Tony Weitzel's. The three Barr children finished their school year in Detroit but will be registering out here next fall. Bradford is 15 and in the tenth grade, Gaitheill is thirteen and in the 8th grade and Elise is eleven and in the 6th grade. Mr. Barr is with Cadillac motors.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Egan are in their home on Colony hill. Their daughter Sharon will enter the fourth grade of Franklin school next fall. Mr. Egan is with the Bell Telephone company.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Harrison and their small son Richard are in their home at the corner of Colony Hill road and Fourteen mile road. Mr. Harrison is a Ford dealer in Wayne.

3 Birthday Parties

Hot weather or no, birthday parties go on and on. On July 6 Janice Eisinger celebrated her seventh by inviting her classmates to a party at her home in Franklin court. On Saturday, July 9, Ralph Rumsay had his little friends in for games and lunch for his sixth birthday. On that same day Sara Conrad entertained her friends at her home on scenic boulevard. Sarah was seven.

Yesterday Mary Jo Fisher had her friends in for lunch. Mary Jo was 10.

Comings and Goings

They come and go. Ford Ritter and daughter Judy flew back Monday after a two weeks' visit in California with Mr. Ritter's mother and friends and family. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Webb are glad to be in Franklin even though it was cooler in the upper peninsula. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin White made a flying trip to Indianapolis the first of the week to be present at the wedding of Mrs. Hon. C. Schadt of Birmingham and the Reverend William O. Honer of Baldwin, Mich. They also visited friends in Indianapolis.

Community Picnic

The annual community picnic sponsored by the Franklin community church will be held on the village green on Saturday afternoon, July 23rd. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh White have charge of the program. Plans at present call for a four o'clock ball game, races and games for the children at five and a picnic at six. There will be an evening program which will be announced later.

New Arrival

Newest recruit to the booty set is Jeanette Slade Stark who arrived on July 1. Jeanette's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Stark, her two small sisters, Kitty and Elizabeth and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Buhl Slade all gave her a rousing welcome to Franklin.

Recovering Nicely

Up and around after an emergency operation is Mrs. P. A. I. Ziegelbauer. Mrs. Paul Kanold is also recovering from a recent operation.

Big Family Gathering

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Lovejoy was the scene of a family gathering last Sunday. The occasion was the christening of small Lee Adams Fernstrum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fernstrum in Detroit. Mr. Fernstrum is Mrs. Lovejoy's nephew. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Fernstrum of Warren, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ross of Farmington, his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Fernstrum and family.

"MISS SECRETARY"—Irene Williams went her crown after being chosen "Miss Secretary of 1949" at the annual convention of the National Secretaries Association in Chicago. Personality, grooming, dress, neatness and grammar all counted toward her victory over 48 other contestants. She has been employed for 23 years by a Chicago bank.

of Detroit, Mrs. M. Mohlpoer of Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. John McClelland of Lake Orion and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Lovejoy and family of Green Lake.

Church School Ends

Tomorrow will see the end of the two weeks session of the Franklin community church sponsored vacation Bible school. With some 70 children registered, the school will hold a sharing night for their families and friends. There will be an exhibit of the work they have done and a sharing of some section of the studies they have made. The program will start at 7:30 at the Franklin community hall.

Children's Favorite

Undisputed favorite with Franklin children last week was George Wellington Smith who outdid himself with a really super fireworks display on the hill just back of his home on that fourth evening.

77 Attend Picnic

The Harold Rosenbergs did up the fourth in a grand and glorious way with some 77 friends joining them for a picnic dinner and fun. The swimming pool was the favorite spot though Irwin White's calling brought out a number who would square dance in spite of the heat.

Evening Circle Party

Have you made your reservations for the gala night which the have planned with their husbands? The pot luck dinner will be held at 7:15 p.m. in the grove adjoining the Will-O-Way playground. Following the picnic the group will attend the current play, Jack Holmes' Mrs. Frank Taylor, and Mrs. Edward Greenleaf taking the

Pot Luck Luncheon Planned
Regular meeting of the Franklin Friendly circle will be held next Wednesday, July 20, at the home of Mrs. John Osof on Millbrook road. There will be a pot luck luncheon under the direction of Mrs. Winfield Hissman.

Garden Club Steak Roast
The garden club had for its July meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Harrison on Franklin Park drive. A real turnout with a number of guests. The discussion for the evening was presented by Mrs. Ernest Knobloch, well known authority, as guest commentator.
