Friendly Interest . . .

Over a period of years we have built into our organization the kind of people who give part of themselves in each customer-relationship.

You know the difference when a certain somebody serves you—one person is impersonal, indifferent and lifeless, the other kind seems friendly and interested in you and your

Surely, when you buy printing, it is important that you be given some of the knowledge and help of that printer, otherwise the job may Jack effectiveness and sparkle and fail to perform its designed purpose.
