Boudreaux Return Home

Mr. and Mrs. Clement Boudreaux (Pat Stock), formerly of the village and now of Detroit, have returned to their home after a two-week motor trip through the West. Baby Kathie spent her vacation in the home of her grandparents, the Howard Stocks on San Diego boulevard.

Visitors from Miami

Andrew Saffo and son, Kenneth, of Miami Beach, Fla., spent Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Richardson. The Saffos were former neighbors living on Meadowbrook way.

Residents Plan Vacations

The Clifton C. O'Clairs of Glenwood boulevard are anticipating a three-week vacation with friends at East Tawas during August.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Campbell are leaving the latter part of July for a three weeks' vacation to be divided between Muskoka Lakes, Canada, and visiting friends and relatives in the copper country in the upper Peninsula. The Campbells are from Hancock, Mich.

Three New Babies

Mr. and Mrs. Allen G. Weirmer (Barbara Smith) announce the birth of a 6-pound, 8-ounce son, Allen G. Jr., on July 3, at Providence hospital. The Clifford B. Smiths of San Diego boulevard are the grandparents. The Weirmers will spend the summer at Ledy, Wyo.

The Lathrup home and the Smiths have opened their summer home at Buck Lake, near Ann Arbor, where they will stay until early fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Babington (Mary To Stock) of Detroit announce the birth of a daughter on July 7, at Mount Carmel hospital. The grandparents are the Howard Stocks of San Diego boulevard.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Collins of Quenton drive announce the birth of a daughter, born July 5 at Providence hospital. The Collins have two other girls and three boys.

Transferred to Siam

Bob Waddell formerly of the village is employed in New Orleans with Federal Mogul. His fiancée is the daughter of R. Thorsens of Quenton drive. His sister Esther has been in Japan for past 18 months and was recently transferred to Siam. They are the children of Mrs. Ruth Waddell who moved from the village to Cosburn, Va.

Summer School Program

The summer school program is a new service of the Southfield Board of Education for the children of this area who need to catch up with their studies. More than 100 students have enrolled.

The summer recreation program is underway with an additional center. John Grace and Magnolia Foster's day has been changed to Wednesdays with buses scheduled for 9:30 a.m. returning at 4:30 p.m.

Lathrup school, swimming day is Tuesday with the same bus schedule. The children are transported to Rouge for swimming, and they carry their lunches which are eaten at Bloomer Park. All activities are supervised.

July 17 Picnic

Members of the College Career group met Friday at the home of Virginia Purse of Lathrup boulevard to complete plans for the all-day picnic outing July 17 at the Verne Peels' summer home at Eagle Lake, carrying 800 cars will transport the group there for swimming and fishing.

Off on Camping Trip

Newly organized St. Michaels Boy Scout Troop, with 20 members, left for a two week camping expedition at Loon Lake early this morning. St. Michael's school bus transported the youngsters the 120 miles there, and were garbed in their brand new Scout uniforms. Heading the procession were cars of paragon make and one had a shining canoe atop. Tom Allen is accompanied by Vick Mullen and Ray Bryant. Cletus Collins is business manager.

TV Performers

Coming over television Saturday were two familiar faces, each with broad grins. Michael Koskinen, a singer, and John Stock, a Soap Box Derby champion. Stock, a Chevy dealer, was shown handing out a prize to a Detroit lad.

Garden Reception Follows Ceremony

A reception was held in the gardens of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson H. Kimberly of Coral Gables road, Lathrup village following the wedding of their son, John Aubrey, to Pat Sullivan of Detroit, at Visitation church Saturday morning. The bride is the daughter of the Francis Sallivans of Toledo and she has made her home with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Lee of Nardin avenue. The bride wore an off-bowder white marquisette gown styled with ruffled skirt with a circular train. Her veil was of lace and she carried a white lace fan with roses and stephanotis attached.

Her two attendants, Mrs. Stewart Ball, a sister from Toledo, and Mrs. Niley D. Bailey of Berk, were attired in blue and yellow marquisette, respectively, and each carried fans with daisies attached, and wore headresses of the same flowers.

Best man was Richard Kimberly, and the ushers were Peter Donaldson, James Hudnut and Lawrence Roser.

The couple is honeymooning in Kentucky at an Indian reservation in the Smokies. They will reside on Burlingame avenue upon their return.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Dolg of San Diego boulevard had as their houseguests the past two weeks, Mrs. W. M. Biggersstaff of San Francisco and Mrs. Dolg's father, Mr. C. M. Bechtel of Kansas City, Mo.

TRIAL BY FIRE—A newly-developed gas tank for aircraft gets a blowtorch test by an aviation mechanic at Floyd Bennett Field in New York. Capable of withstanding direct flame and intense heat up to 2000 degrees Fahrenheit, the specially coated tank failed to burn after being exposed to the blowtorch flame for 25 minutes. A conventional gas tank burst into flames after less than two minutes.

The SCORE PAD

By Jim Gray
(Sense and nonsense at the bridge table. Other settings.)

Henry Georgia, with the graciously that marks the real-life bridge player, nudged one of our opponents and pointed at me. "Look at that. Wasn't that something? Do you people realize that my partner just completed one of the rarest plays in bridge—the dummy reverse!" I coughed modestly. "Just an accident, Hank."

"Accident, nothing. You are really sharp tonight."

"I held up a hand in mild protest—but, secretly, I began to wonder..."

The auction (with North and South vulnerable): West, one club; North, double (for a take-out); East, two clubs (for its minimum value); South, two spades; West, three diamonds; North, four spades.

To open, West cashed his diamond king. Then he shifted to the club queen. South considered his plan of play. (East is marked with five clubs to the jack. So I am sure of three club tricks. The main problem: how to play the remainder of the

4 Birmingham Girls Leave Saturday for YWCA Camp Cavell

Eighty-one Detroit and four Birmingham school girls will arrive at the YWCA's Camp Cavell on Lake Huron Saturday for the second two-week period of camp, and 79 who boast six-tans acquired in the past two weeks at Cavell will stay until the end of July, filling the camp to capacity. Swimming and horseback riding are as usual—the most popular sports, according to Marilyn Magers, camp director. "But fencing, archery and tennis get their share of enthusiasm."

A few openings still exist for Camp Cavell's final two-week period starting August 13. All school girls 10 to 17 are eligible. Registration office is at Central Branch, YWCA, Withersell at Central Branch. Birmingham girls arriving at Camp Cavell Saturday include: Jane Kennedy, 315 Fair (a.s.); Trudy Ann McKewan, 736 Pleasant; Betty Ellen Quilliam, 782

Chesterfield; and Charlene Sutfin, 164 Oak St. Campers who arrived at Cavell for the season's opening July 2 and are staying until the end of the month include: Patricia Babcock, 313 Fairfax; and Catherine P. Bomis, 2729 Yorkshire Rd. R.R. 4. A tree saved is a tree grown—don't waste wood.
