Why a Man Buys a Cadillac

If you were to ask the owner of a 1949 Cadillac why he bought his car, he would doubtless find it difficult to put into words the way he feels about "the Standard of the World".

He would probably tell you that he bought his car because it's a Cadillac.

Of course if you wanted to ask him specific questions, he could give you a great deal of specific information.

Did he buy his car for performance? Why, surely he bought it for performance—for the 1949 Cadillac is powered by a great new V-8 engine, so smooth and effortless that only a demonstration can tell the whole story of its superiority.

Did he buy it for comfort? Yes—for a ride so quiet and careful and easy that every mile is a joy and a relaxation.

Did he buy it for safety? He certainly did! He has such confidence in the steady steering, the quick acceleration and the powerful hydraulic brakes that his peace of mind is worth the purchase price!

Did he buy it for long life and durability? There can be no doubt of it. For he knows that many Cadillacs have rolled down the highways for more than half a million miles and are still in active service!

Did he buy it for...? Why, of course he did! And he bought it for a lot of other reasons, for beauty, for distinction, for quality, for background, for character, for craftsmanship, for engineering.

He bought it, you see, because it's a... Cadillac.

And that is the reason why you should buy one—for Cadillac's superiority lies not in any one thing, but in the whole of its substance. Why not come in for a ride that's a revelation?

Returns to Will-O-Way

Minnie Jo Curtis, who is no newcomer to Will-O-Way Playhouse, will star in that summer theater's second production of the season, "Here Today." In the play with Miss Curtis will be Treasa Way Merrill, mother of Will-O-Way's director, William Merrill. "Here Today" will open Tuesday, July 19, and run for two weeks, with the theater closed on Mondays.

Active in both radio and television in Detroit, Minnie Jo is currently working on TV in New York, where she has appeared on the program "Studio One." A graduate of the University of Oklahoma, Miss Curtis spent a year in Chicago as a free-lance radio actress and continuity editor. While here she was heard on such radio programs as "Chicago of the Air," "Ma Perkins" and "Backstage Wife."

In Guild Production She then returned to Oklahoma City to become an agency radio director and was also active in the Little Theater there. While working in Detroit she had her own television program and appeared on the Coffee Club and the Tuby and Minnie Jo Show, among others. During the summer of 1947, she appeared with Ian Keith in the Dramatic Guild production of "Right You Are" in Detroit. In the fall of that year she was selected to go to New York for the Eddie Dowling program, "The Big Break."

Miss Curtis appeared in both "Sailor Beware" and "My Sister Eileen" at Will-O-Way last summer.

member, Mrs. Merrill also has a repertoire of scenes from plays and character sketches which she presents before various groups around the state.

In brief, the story of "Here Today" concerns a stuffy Back Bay family and their reactions to a screwball writer and her boyfriend who invade their summer home in the Bahamas.

Sunday, July 17, is the last night to see "The Milky Way" starring Robert Bryson. This is the first Will-O-Way production of the season and is the story of a mild milkman who becomes a champion fighter without ever landing a blow!

Attend Lions Club Convention This Weekend in East

The Lions will be roaring in New York this coming weekend when delegates from the Lions Clubs all over the country descend upon that metropolis for their annual convention from July 17 to the 21st.

Among those from the local organization who will be going east are Mr. and Mrs. William Speace (he is the district governor of ILL); president and Mrs. Joseph B. Mowry, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Reese (Reese is past-president of the Birmingham club), and Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Caputo, to their son and their daughter, Gaietta.

Miss Caputo, who was recently named queen of the Michigan Lions, will compete on Sunday, July 17 with the girls chosen as queens from the other 47 states in the setting of Madison Square Garden. The winner of this contest will then, on Monday, July 18, vie for the place of international queen with 17 foreign beauties representing their countries in which Lions Clubs have been formed.

Grain of all kinds constitutes the major food crop in the United States.

Tell them YOURSELF by Long Distance

When out-of-town relatives and friends celebrate important occasions, the next best thing to being there in person is being there by telephone. Long Distance service is friendly and courteous.
