Contests and Fun Highlight YMCA's Recent Bob-Lo Trip

About 77 youngsters and 16 adults accompanied the Birmingham YMCA on its trip to Bob-Lo Island last Thursday. When the charter bus left Birmingham to make connections with the 10:50 a.m. boat, there did not seem to be room for another passenger. Group singing featured the ride into Detroit. At the wharf, circus clowns entertained the youngsters and gave away candy suckers.

The athletic program at diamond No. 2 on the island, found the following people from Birmingham placing among the winners. Mrs. Edwin Kirsher placed fourth in the freckle contest; Larry Yates and Ronnie Anderson won the wheelbarrow race with Clark Hallas and Bob Mansfield placing third; for boys over 12 years of age, D. O. Thornton and Larry Yates placed first and second in the 50 yard backward race; Mrs. Charles Devitt, was the rolling pin throwing contest for molasses by scoring five consecutive bull-eyes in six tosses. Mrs. W. J. Thornton placed second. In the 50 yard dash, Bill Sicks-Brether, Don Thornton and Ronnie Anderson placed first, second and third. Prizes for the winners may be called for at 139 West Maple Avenue.

rides seemed to be the favorites among the youngsters as Pica, Frank Joe and Nickie-Basilico; Louis Barton; Mike Carlson, Nancy Clinger; Bill Cory; Bonnie Dwyer; Marsha Edmonds; Clark Hallas; Mable Harabedian; Nora Kachadurian; Jimmy and Karen Killinger; Kitty King; Bill Lamb; Bill Lockie; Ronald Anderson; Marlene Lawson; Bob Mansfield; Katy Micos; George Bouse; Della Arnold; John Cassidy; Gordon and Douglas MacCleary; Bill Sicks-Brether; Gordon Yates; Glenn and Clifford Sorter; Tam Townsend; Pauline Oliver; Russell Thomson; Robert Thompson; Pat Rander; Roberta Allison; Richard Giles; Susan Thurston; James Sharpe; Gordon Mutch; Tom Devitt; Merrill Schlaak; Jon Clarke; Marilyn Shirz and Bruce Duncan made the rounds.

The group, tired and happy, arrived home at 7:00 p.m.
