Limburger Highlight
Limburger cheese highlighted another party held this time at the home of Frank Morton on Middlebelt road, when 20 men gathered there to play cards and indulge in the "limburger" cheese.

Local Guests
Guests at the Inkster road home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pernack on Friday were Mrs. Artroll and her sons, Richard and Edward.

Table Warming
A surprise party was held on Tuesday evening that really was a surprise! There were no birthdays, anniversaries nor other occasions to celebrate in the family, but 22 adults and several children suddenly appeared on the lawn of the Emory Kendall home to hold a picnic and initiate a new picnic table.

1,800 Mile Trip
The John Woodman family returned Tuesday evening to their Poplar lane home after an 1800 mile vacation trip. They attended the Railway fair in Chicago and then drove to the Delta in Wisconsin. One evening they made a trip up the Wisconsin River to see the Indian ceremonial of Lone Rock in Champagne, Ill. They were guests of former Walnut Lake residents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stromquist in their newly completed home.

Fashion Show
Local belles will parade in the fashion show to be given by the Walnut Lake Women's Club, Oct. 5 at Devon Gables, Betsy Braun will be in charge of makeup and assist the models, Elaine Casey, Norma Palmer, Marjory Gould, Ruth Fritz, Mary Sloan, Geneva Stevens, Rosemary Mallich and Ruth Nightingale. Kay Rockwell is general chairman.

Pot Luck Party
Mr. and Mrs. Wesley C. Leonard held a pot luck party in their lovely new home on Lakeview court, Thursday. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hinmon, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Baugh and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Roseberry of Franklin and Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKinley. After dinner they attended the Will-O-Way dance.

Ship Ahoy!
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fitzgerald of Wycliff were guests of Newell Sargeant aboard his yacht, "Indian Dignity," Sunday. They sailed from the Bayview Yacht Club to La Belle River, Ont., having lunch on the boat. On the return trip they stopped at Peach Island, Ont., and had dinner on the Island, returning to the club late in the evening.

Camper
Peter Sintz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sintz of Walnut Lake road, left Wednesday morning to spend two weeks at Camp Mahan-go-lah-see near Hale. This is his first trip to camp and when several days elapsed with no news from Peter, his parents decided he must be having a wonderful time.

Handmade ash trays made by the ceramics group under the leadership of Elaine Casey will be for distribution. The committee has been working very hard to make it a success. So put a circle around Oct. 5 on your calendar. Come and see your neighbors model the new fall fashions.

Photographs for publication in the Eccentric must be submitted by Friday noon of the week before publication.

Merchants Softball Tied for First
Birmingham Merchants softball team is tied for first place with Royal Oak, Gage and Drummy, after defeating Clawson CYO 5-4 at Memorial Park Sunday night, July 17.

Flapjack Flipper
Dex Harrison flipped the flapjacks at breakfast held Tuesday morning at the clubhouse. Members of the ceramics group came to devour the pancakes and then worked on their project of making ash trays.

Social Affairs
Weekend guests at the George Overgard home on Euclid were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lanning and Mrs. Paul Arnolis of Detroit.

Guests at the Graham Overgard home on Walnut Lake road last week were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coe and Mrs. Mrs. J. C. Biggers and their daughters, Jane and Mary Bliss, of Tuckerman, Ark. Mr. Coe is Overgard's sister.

Next week the Overgard will entertain Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Overgard and their son, Judd, from Los Angeles and Mrs. R. T. Overgard of Hammond, Kan.

Mr. Richard Williams of Euclid has as her houseguests Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oettele and their two children of Warren, Mich. Mrs. Mauden O'Sullivan entertained 15 friends Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. George Bassett on Butnam drive. A swimming party in the afternoon was followed by a buffet supper and dancing in the evening. Guests came from Walnut Lake and from St. Rosa school in Detroit. Those attending from Walnut Lake were Carl, Jerry and Theresa Fletcher and Patricia and Elizabeth Omsstead.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schwarze of their son, Judd, from Los Angeles and Mrs. R. T. Overgard of Hammond, Kan.
