

Fathers Join Sons for Weekend at Y Camp Nissokone

Birmingham and Bloomfield Village were well represented among the dads who visited Camp Nissokone near Okemah, Mich., for a weekend with their sons. Festivities started Friday evening with a fish dinner in the large spacious dining hall, which is a landmark of the Philip H. Gray Memorial YMCA camp, now called "Nissokone". Following this, the dads, and many mothers, were treated to several one-act plays at the Playhouse along the shores of Lake Van Etten. Tapes found the entire camp sleeping under one or two blankets as the brisk night air swept in from Lake Huron, six miles away.

Saturday's schedule featured the Lads-Dads ball game. With Don Chaffee pitching and Tom Usher catching, the Dads triumphed 8 to 2. Frank Whitney, playing shortstop for the Lads, came up with the winning play of the game when he snared a line drive over second base. "County Fair" occupied the spotlight in the afternoon. Each cabin competed against each other in putting on the best novelty show for the parents. "Spook House," and "The Fishing Hook," headed by Albert

Summer Players Give "Beat the Heat" As the Season's First Variety Show

"Beat the Heat" was well! This was the title of the Birmingham Summer Players third production—a variety show. Under the direction of Dorothy Allen, who was assisted by Steve Campbell and Jim Ensign, the show proceeded with a variety of acts which displayed the diverse talents of the many who participated.

The impresario, Campbell and Ensign, kept the ball rolling between acts. They appeared in costumes ranging from Hawaiian dancers and Scotch pipers to Frankenstein and a monkey. They kept the audience rolling in the aisles and the master of ceremonies, Dana Elcar, in a state of consternation trying to get rid of them. Ensign did a tremendous job of sustaining the act throughout.

Singers Were Fine
Joan Gove turned in the stand-out performance among the singers. Her rendition of "Let My Song Fill Your Heart" was done with professional phrasing and inflection. Her stage appearance was flawless.

The "Notchblenders" of Oakland County, a barbershop quartet, gave forth with three numbers in a real old-time style. Nancy Keyes was cute and charming while singing her three numbers—particularly "Waiting For My Dearie". Yolanda Foley, an English girl who has been in this country only a few months, was splendid as she sang her two songs.

The show was blessed with three very fine pantomime acts. Virginia Marson proved to be a comedy riot as she closed the show mimicking Beatrice Kay's "Hurrah! Hurrah!" Four girls and a boy from Denby High school, Jackie Beckey, Jane Drummond, Nancy LeRoy, Jane Lodig and George Halder performed "When I'm Next Next the Girl I Love" in what can be termed as a "show-stopper".

Three piano acts were heard in the show. In the first Clifford Dunn played three preludes by George Gershwin. The duet of Sieglinde Sauskojus and Jerry Neff accounted for two difficult selections from "Scaramouch". Finally, Jan Kintley and Mary Richards fingered the tricky "Dizzy Fingers".

Barton Bronson played a melow solo on the tuba—"When the Jolly Farmer Goes to Town". Harold Jones, president of Michigan State College band, hit "Napoleon" on the coronet with rich, full tones.

The "combo" of Harris Jackson, Ralph Dunbar, Jim Buchanan, Art Lake and Rock Wainstay beat out the intermission music. Jack-

Off to Muskoka Lake
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur LaFave, 4303 Verona Circle, will leave tomorrow for a two weeks vacation in Canada. They will go to Muskoka Lake and stay at the Golden Pheasant Lodge near Huntsville. Mary Helen and Dickie will go along with their parents. On the way back they will visit relatives in North Bay and Sudbury.

Attends Uncle's Funeral
Mr. and Mrs. William Warner of Auburn Circle attended the funeral of Bill's uncle, George Eaton in Covington, Ky., last week. Uncle George had a cabin in the Georgian Bay area where the Warners spent a great deal of time fishing and hunting.

Visit Historic Places
Mr. and Mrs. John Naylon have returned from a month's tour of some of the historical places in the southeastern states. Washington, D. C., was the first important stop. They continued through S. Carolina and then Florida. Johnnie, Caroline and Virginia came back with much more vivid knowledge of places and incidents than the other children have studied in school. Mrs. Naylon's aunt, Mrs. Vail Stevens who is quite a well known singer in Kansas City, Mo., spent last weekend visiting the Naylons at their home at 3238 Sheridan.

Sees Sister
Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sals spent Sunday visiting May's sister, and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Tom really took off in the "Star-dust" number.

The performers deserve a lot of credit. They all did a great job. Next week—George Washington Sled Here!

Dog-gone Good Business
A number of enterprising young lads have started up a new business of caring for dogs. Bob Perkins and John Bowles, both of Auburn drive, purchased the necessary tubs, combs and brushes and then got busy lining up dogs to wash, dry and brush in John's back yard. So far they have washed Topbebers, Bungees and Bowles dogs and have several others to do. They are making the rounds every other week.

It'll Be Quiet
Mr. and Mrs. Reed E. Palmer, 19150 Riverside drive, are going to be in for a month of ereaking noise and odd-sounds all due to it being just a little too quiet for a household that is used to three healthy young boys. Judy, Lynn and Janet are all leaving Sunday for Westminster Camp at Higgins Lake for one whole month.

Steak Roast
Mr. and Mrs. Clare Greenlee of Auburn Circle had a steak roast last week. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Aday of Royal Oak, Mr. C. G. Manchester, Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Tennant, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hamer and Miss Jean Osborne, all of Detroit.

Vacationers Return
Mr. and Mrs. George Ladd and son, David, of Auburn Circle just returned from a trip through some of the scenic sections of our United States. Their tour included the Grand Canyon, Bryce Canyon, and Zion Painted Desert, the petrified forests and, what David called the high spot of his trip, an Indian Pow Wow in Flagstaff, N. M. The population in this town is about 6,000 and during this time about 5,000 Indians come in to put on a wonderful tribal exhibition. Fourteen tribes are represented and each has a special part in the Pow Wow. The Ladds also visited Mrs. Ladd's brother, Harold Schooner and family. The Ladds other son, Ricky, vacationed with his cousin, Alan Ladd, in Pontiac during their parents' trip.

New Home
Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reynolds are very pleased to see the progress being made on Floyd's parents' home just a couple blocks down the way from them. The Reynolds built on Verona Circle this spring and after a few visits out here the parents decided to do the same. You know it is said and "a little child shall lead them."

George Kell (right), top Tiger hitter for the month of June, presents the keys to a brand new '49 Ford to Mr. Harold M. Wilson, 1420 Sudbury Court, Willow Run Village, Michigan.

Mr. Wilson won the Ford Dealers' Baseball Contest by correctly naming George Kell and Pat Mullin as the two Detroit Tiger players who had the highest batting averages for games played during June—and for making the best estimate of their June batting averages.

More than 25,000 Tiger fans participated in the contest. Contest judges were: Bob Murphy, Sports Editor, Detroit Times; Lyall Smith, Sports Editor, Detroit Free Press; and Sam Greene, Detroit News Sports Columnist.
