About 1.7 billions of dollars in war bonds were sold to Naval personnel in the Navy's war bond program from September, 1941, to July, 1947.

long and fitted as were the sleeves and the bouffant skirt was formed of a layer of ruffles which extended into a full cathedral train.

Mrs. Walter Stinson of Birmingham, as matron of honor, wore a gown of white tulle and organza over dark green taffeta. Highlighting the ensemble was a matching green velvet sash. She wore a garden hat of organza with velvet streamers and carried a cascade of yellow asters and lily.

As bridesmaids, Miss Gilda Franklin of Royal Oak was in first green taffeta and Miss Donna Kramer of Birmingham wore chartreuse taffeta. Their dresses were styled in the same design as the honor matron and their bouffants were duobust asters and lily in cascade arrangements.

Gerald Tweedie served his brother as best man and ushering the guests to their seats were the bride's brother, Rodney Smith, Jr., and Allen McCrae of Birmingham.

For the wedding and reception which followed at the Birmingham Country Club, Mrs. Smith selected a street length dress of beige lace with a pink feathered train and black accessories. The bridegroom's mother was in a silk print of blue and grey cloth with white accessories. Both mothers wore rhubarb lily corsages.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Tweedie chose a white summer suit with a white hat and green accessories.

Kirk in the Hills Benefit Fashion Show Being Planned

Members of the Women's Association of Kirk in the Hills announce a benefit fashion show which they are sponsoring on Tuesday, September 13 from 2:00 to 4:00 o'clock. The Paris collection will be shown in the formal gardens at the Kirk and the show will be followed by a tea.

Mr. John Lissey of Detroit is general chairman of the affair; tickets are being handled by Mrs. Frank Wilson of Walled Lake; Mrs. Franklin Dowling of Bloomfield Hills is in charge of favors; refreshments are under the chairmanship of Mrs. Orville Bond of Walled Lake; arrangements chairman Mrs. John Palmer of Birmingham and Mrs. Earl Parks of Bloomfield Hills is handling the publicity.

Your Gift For the Wedding . . .

Those who give her fine china, glass and sterling silver. We have such gifts, all fine in quality and flawless in design. Each one was made by a great house whose very name is a perpetual guarantee. They will be proud adornments of the dowry which she brings to her new home to use always. And she will thank you from the bottom of her heart.
