Carrying an arrangement of spray orchids, stephanotis and ivy, Miss Edith Golding Williams exchanged nuptial vows with Lieut. (j.g.) Chandler Eastman Swallow Saturday evening. The Rev. Robert L. DeWitt officiated at the single ring rites which were read by the bride's father, the Rev. Robert L. DeWitt. The bride wore a pale blue chiffon and a corsage of spray orchids. Mrs. Swallow wore a ring and a turquoise mated print and a spray orchid corsage.

For traveling to northern Michigan, the new Mrs. Swallow selected a pink rayon suit with a white hat and blue accessories. The couple will continue on through Canada and then go to Annapolis where they will make their home.

Wearing candlelight satin, the bride was given in marriage by her father. Designer's highlights of the gown featured a high neck, a fitted bodice and long, traditionally pointed sleeves. A full skirt swept into a chapel train and a halo of net held her hairloom full length rose point veil.

As her sister's maid of honor, Miss Anne Loring Williams was wearing yellow taffeta fashioned with a bertha collar, short sleeves and a full skirt. She wore a tiara of white carnations in her hair and carried a bouquet of white carnations and blue delphinium with ivy.

The bridesmaids, Miss Jean McGregor, Miss Nancy Hill, Miss Mary McLane of Manchester, N. J., and Mrs. Richard Waite of Lafayette, Ind., wore in pale blue taffeta cut along the same lines as the honor maids, with tiaras of yellow carnations in their hair. Their flowers were blue delphinium, yellow carnations and ivy.

Lieut. (j.g.) Jack Manherz of Scarsdale, N. Y., acted as best man and serving as ushers were the bride's brother, Gardner Williams, Dr. Richard Waite of Lafayette, Ind.; Bill Little of Providence, R. I., and two brothers of the bride.

Effective July 2— NEW LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE RATES for calls within Michigan

INCREASED RATES for long distance telephone calls between Michigan points, effective July 2, 1949, have been authorized by the Michigan Public Service Commission.

Last December, Michigan Bell requested rate increases for both local telephone service and long distance service within Michigan so it might continue giving the kind of telephone service the people of Michigan demand.

The Public Service Commission's order provides only for that part of the application which requested an increase in long distance rates (including rates for teletypewriter exchange service messages) within the state. But it will provide urgently needed revenue until the Commission is able to finish its investigation of the complete request and rule on it.

Your Long Distance operator gladly will give you the new rate to any Michigan point.

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

HERE'S WHAT THE NEW RATES MEAN

Initial-period rates for DAY STATION-TO-STATION calls are increased 5¢ to 15¢, depending on the distance.

Initial-period rates for NIGHT STATION-TO-STATION calls are increased 5¢ to 30¢, depending on the distance.

Initial-period rates for DAY STATION-TO-PERSON calls are increased 5¢ to 30¢, depending on the distance.

Initial-period rates for NIGHT STATION-TO-PERSON calls are increased 5¢ to 45¢, depending on the distance.

Rates for each additional minute, which are approximately 1/2 of the initial period rate, are increased proportionately.

The initial period for 10¢ calls on the new rate schedule is 4 instead of 5 minutes; and for 20¢ calls, 3 instead of 4 minutes.

Rates for teletypewriter exchange service messages between Michigan points are increased proportionately.
