

Miss Minks Wears Chantilly Lace For Her Wedding Gown

At a candlelight ceremony Thursday evening, June 16, in the First Baptist Church, Miss Doris Mae Minks became the bride of T. Allen Petersen, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Petersen of Chicago, Ill. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Minks of Hennetta street, was given in marriage by her father. The Rev. Emil Kontz of the First Baptist Church performed the double-ring ceremony in a setting of palms, stock and peonies against a background of candlelight. The aisle was lighted by tapers.

The bride wore a traditional white gown of sheer French imported Chantilly lace over bridal satin. The long fitted sleeves formed puffs at the wrists. Her sweetheart neckline was edged with a tiny lace flower motif as were the long pointed sleeves. Tiny satin buttons trimmed the back of the fitted bodice which held a full skirt ending in a long sweeping train. Her long veil of illusion was held in place with a small satin brim high-lighted with seed pearls. Her bridal bouquet, of white orchids, tiny rosebuds and stephanotis was fastened to a white lace fan matching the wedding gown.

The matron of honor, her sister Ruth, wore a gown of white frosted organza over pale green silk with a matching green sash which tied into a large bow in the back and ended in long streamers. Her bridesmaids wore a ring identical gown of white frosted organza over light rose silk with Miss Marilyn Minks, a cousin of the bride from Fisher, Ill.; Miss Constance Hall of Muskegon; Miss Patricia Nicholson of Grand Rapids and the Misses Jean Kelly and Marilyn Bunyan both of Birmingham. All the attendants' dresses were fashioned alike with fitted bodices and full skirts. The low cut necklines were finished with a wide overlapping shawl-collars which formed cap sleeves and ended in points in the front. They carried pink roses against fans covered with tiny ivy trails. The matron of honor carried red roses against an ivy covered fan. Matching flower hats were worn in the hair.

The flower girl, Miss Lynn Suzanne Lowman of Birmingham wore a gown matching those of the bridesmaids and carried a small white basket of rose petals. The ring bearer, John Malmquist, nephew of the groom, carried the ring on a white satin cushion

The bride chose a white summer garden suit and large white hat with navy accessories for her going-away outfit. She wore the orchids from her bridal bouquet. After a two-week trip through the Upper Peninsula, the couple will leave for their home in Chicago.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Loos of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sharpe of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Minks and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie McJilton of Fisher, Ill.; Mrs. Elwood Miller of Rantoul, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith of Elkhart, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Arch of Howell.

Caltrider Nine Tightens Grip On Softball Finals

Caltrider team members assured themselves no less than a tie for the first round championship of the YMCA Softball League, when they defeated Great Lakes Suburban Greyhound 5-3 at Torry field last week.

Ken Braidwood's triple over right-fielder Hathaway's was a d brought in Jim Kothe with the tying run for Caltrider's in the sixth inning of the game. Successive doubles by Roge Reynolds and Harry Suggden scored the winning markers in the seventh inning after Tom Tracy hit a home run in the sixth inning. There were two outs at the time and two runners on the bases when Roge hit his long fly which Dion pulled in, deep in right-center field. Reynolds had 11 strikes outs as he chalked up his seventh win of the year.

8 to 8 Tie Game

Craig's Sporting Goods company nine could not get Dale Roberts across the plate after he had walked in the seventh inning of their game with Birmingham Men and had to be satisfied with a 8-8 tie.

Jack Graham's home run in the fifth inning scored three runs for Craig's as they came up with five to give themselves a 3 to 2 lead over Birmingham Men.

However, Birmingham was not to be denied, and came back to triumph in lace matching the gown of the bride.

The groom had as his best man, Howard Bogush of Chicago. The guests were seated by Richmond Unwin and Jack Wentzel of Chicago; Raymond Malmquist of Madison, Wis.; William Reed of Detroit and Richard Charles of Glendale, Calif.

Mrs. Minks, mother of the bride, wore a floor length gown of light blue lace with a matching hat and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Petersen's gown was of floor length cinnamon brown lace. She wore a matching hat and orchid corsage. Mrs. LaGrant, grandmother of the bride wore a floor length dress of pink French voile. Her accessories and flowers were white.

A reception for 350 guests was held immediately after the ceremony in the church lower auditorium. Mrs. Adrian LaGrant of Rantoul, Ill., served the wedding cake. Serving the bride's cake were Mrs. Jack Wentzel, sister of the bridegroom, from Chicago and Mrs. Frank Sharpe of Toronto, Canada. Jean Sharpe of Toronto, Patricia Dunn of Detroit, Jean Caswell of Mt. Vernon, Ohio, and Barbara Brenkert, Constance McGirr and Barbara Davies of Birmingham assisted. The guest book was tended by Miss Tressa True of Detroit. A two-piano duo, Yvonne Shoup and Myrle McFall, both from Pontiac, furnished win over Summer Motor Sales. He gave up only four scratch hits as his teammates pounded out six of the slants of Maurie Germaine. It was Michigan Hall's seventh win of the season and moved them into undisputed possession of second place behind Caltrider's.

Games of June 16, which had been postponed because of rain, Greyhound at Torry Field; W. A. Caltrider opposes Summer Motor Sales at Howarth field; and Michigan Bell Telephone takes on Craig's Sporting Goods at St. James Park. All games start at 6:30 p.m.
