The Rev. Harold Towne officiated at the double ring rites which united Miss Emily Lehto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Lehto, of Chassel, Mich., and Jack Filkins, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Filkins of Chestnut street, Saturday.

Miss Lehto was escorted to the altar by her brother, Wayne Lehto. Her bridal gown was a white slipper satin with a square neck yoke of illusion edged with seed pearls. The sleeves were long and the full skirt fell into a sweeping train. A polka bonnet of heirloom lace and seed pearls held her hair fingertip veil.

Miss Lillian Miettinen of Houghton, Mich., was a maid of honor, in a pale blue crepe and net gown which featured a draped skirt. On her head was a matching blue bonnet and in her arms she carried yellow roses.

Don Garfield of Birmingham served Mr. Filkins as best man and Victor Spence and Rex Filkins, both of Birmingham, seated the guests.

Mrs. Lehto was in navy blue with a matching hat and Mrs. Filkins also wore navy blue and a white hat. Both their corsages were of baby white orchids.

Following a reception held at the Village Players, Mr. and Mrs. Filkins left on a wedding trip which will take them to Wisconsin and northern Michigan. For her going away ensemble, the bride selected a soft tweed suit with brown accessories. They will make their home at 371 Townsend upon their return.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil A. Moore of Safford road are her parents.

NEWS VIEWS

By THE KINCAIDS

WITH history spinning its web around us like a dizzy spider on a hot day, let's not forget that June 17, 1775, was the date of the battle of Bunker Hill. That was the time an amateur optometrist told the boys not to fire until they saw the whites of the enemies' eyes. The redcoats came up the hill as though they were heading for a picnic, then folded up like an accordion. If they hadn't, we might still be a British colony today. The skirmish proved to the colonists that, if you're resolved not to give ground, you've won a big part of the battle before you start. It's worth remembering.

Special Services are being held Sunday, June 19th at 11 a.m. commemorating the 71th anniversary of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer on Maple road. Guests are welcome.

The Natchez Country Club was digging a swimming pool, and the diggers struck oil. Looks as though they'll be swimming in money. You don't have to be "swimming in money" to afford a nice gift for Dad on Father's Day, no, sir! You'll find gifts very reasonably priced at THE KINCAIDS, 213 East Maple Avenue. Phone: 301.
