Student Awards Given Friday By Cranbrook

Following greetings from Headmaster W. Brooke Stabler, and a message from the representative of the Cranbrook School board of directors, Gordon O. Rice, Athletic Director Paul A. Thompson summarized the past athletic season at the Cranbrook School banquet court for the awards night presentations on Friday.

The "C" Club award, given to the senior who had combined most in spirit, sportsmanship and ability to the athletic life of Cranbrook during the year, went to Dave Seeber who will have his name engraved on the trophy and receive a certificate. Toxy Maxwell was awarded the Trophy Maxwell medal for accumulating the greatest number of points in a wide variety of track events and for his all-around track ability. The medal was designed by Robert Lohman of the Cranbrook art department.

Representatives of Cranbrook School on the Church cabinet for the year 1948-50 are Fred Steinman, chairman, John Manley, Mike Patten, Doug Van Zandt, Tom Scholnick, Allen Cargile, Charles Carter, Fritz Friday and Jack Knoblock. Toxy Maxwell was presented a gold charm in recognition of his labors with the Brook, Cranbrook's yearbook and Brock Williams was named the new editor-in-chief. Cal Patterson follows Tom as editor-in-chief of the Crane, the school weekly. Dick was also given a gold charm.

New members of Quill and Scroll, the national honor society for high school journalism, sponsored by the Journalism Department of Northwestern University are Ted Mills, Cal Patterson, Bob Beyers, Fred Mead, Fritz Dow, Tom Tomlinson, Dave Omsos, Dave Tompkins, John Gordon, Ronald Ballintyne, Harry Nelson, Bruce Williams, Art Webb and William McGowan.

Members of the Egesterion who have earned 25 points, indicating a full year of major dramatic activity are Dick Beagle, John Denenberg, Pete Melony, Fred Mills, Bill and Mike Bedfield, John Roberts, Jan Simpson, Bob Sukenik, Gene Tolliver, Bruce Williams, Fred Wagner and Dick Wilson.

Receiving silver charms for two years were Bob Beyers, Lewis, Bill McGowan and Norm Bouton. Gold charms, for 75 points went to high school football, basketball and baseball. Matter and Bob Beyers. Mike Bedfield is the new president of Erg and Greg Tolliver is the Secretary-Treasurer.

Following the meeting at Mary Halladay's home to inaugurate two new officers Saturday night, the girls and their dates went to Camp Olyyessa.

For High Score

Rifle club awards went to Thomas Connor for high score championship, averaging 98.2 and Tommy Tomlinson, runner-up, averaging 95.0. The individual improvement award went to John Koepeke. Winner of the club championship tournament were Tommy Tomlinson and Erwin Stirnweis third, the bronze medal. The Rifle team award went to Tommy Tomlinson, Thomas Connor, Erwin Stirnweis and Robert Leister, the school's representatives in all interscholastic contests.

Art achievement awards went to Howard Kates in the sixth form, Charles Carter in the fourth form and Duncan Patten, Andreas Rabe and John Koepeke in the third form. By vote of the music faculty, a bronze medal for vocal music was given to John Rice and certificates for instrumental music went to Harry Hatton, Bing Murray, Fred Smith and Dave Tompkins. New Glee Club officers were Robert Kern, president, Doug Van Zandt, vice-president; David Higgins, secretary; and Tom Galantowicz will be president of the band next year, with Cal Patterson, secretary-treasurer and Bob Ward, librarian.

Presents Academic Awards

Harry D. Hoey, assistant headmaster of Cranbrook presented the academic awards. William Broder was awarded a medal presented by the Michigan Chapter of the American Association of Teachers of French for writing the best examination in fourth grade. French Dave Omsos was given the Reid award for creative writing and John Manley was given the Union College award for maintaining the highest academic average of the junior class as well as winning a variety athletic letter. Students who were on the honor roll all year were Bob Beyers, Bill Broder, John Colwell, John Gordon, Martin Hanna, John Hatch, Bill McGowan, Dave Omsos, Tom Peterson, Phil Plexico and Jon Schwartz.

The Trinity College dictionary award for the senior who, in the opinion of the faculty, made the greatest contribution to Cranbrook School was presented to Robert Beyers by the headmaster. John Rice, head prefect, presented the school flag to the new prefect, Frank Rigas. His assistants for next year will be John Manley, Duncan Patten, Fred Steinman, Douglas Van Zandt, Allen Cargile, Gilbert Gove, Fred Nowy, Wayne Lyon, Michael Bedfield, Ivan Scholnick, Fritz Dow and Tom Galantowicz.

The ceremony concluded with the singing of the school hymn.

Mintling Memorial Award Presented To Clayton Joyce

By Jim Hogan and Duke Layland

Highlighting the program of the spring sports banquet last Tuesday evening was the first awarding of the new Mintling Memorial to Clayton Joyce, considered the most valuable baseball player of the season.

Clayton was the first athlete in seven years to be elected captain in two sports by his teammates. Excelling in football, baseball, hockey, golf, and basketball, Joyce was allowed by high school officials to participate in only three sports. So he concentrated on football, baseball and basketball, being elected captain in the first two.

Joyce was best known for his play on the football field. First string guard for two years and
