

Honors Assembly at Bloomfield Hills

The spring honors assembly at Bloomfield Hills high school was held Friday, June 10, at 11 a.m. in the school auditorium.

The assembly chairman was Kenneth Ollis, who presided over the program opened by the mixed chorus singing "The Green Cathedral" under the direction of Mrs. Virginia Condon.

The class honors included the presentation gift ceremonies with Howard Rogers speaking for the seniors and Jerry Levin making the acceptance speech for the juniors.

Miss Lorena Sheen presented the athletic awards to the girls' softball teams, with Richard Spiess and Felix Wotila presenting awards to boys for track and bowling.

Kenneth Ollis made the scholastic presentation for libraries; Miss Marcia Wells for Spanish, Edward Dykstra, science and Sagesse citizenship.

A humorous interlude, in an otherwise serious assembly, occurred when Wotila, after presenting the bowling awards, gave a ribbon to the "outstanding athlete." This was a Checker Champ award to Richard Spiess, the director of athletics. Spiess has a reputation at Vaughan for his checker skill, shown in the games played with the students during rainy day, noon activities.

Junior-Senior Prom at Bloomfield High

"Blossom Time," the Junior-Senior prom for the Bloomfield Hills students, was held last Friday night at Vaughan School. The dance room was decorated in garlands of flowers, with butterflies and Japanese lanterns creating the blossom time effect.

John Nicoll was the junior chairman of the prom, Sharon Jones, chairman of the decoration committee, and Charles Lane, chairman of the refreshments. Other members of the decorating committee included Mary Bowen, Sue Wendell, Don Bobb and Nancy Tweedale.

Approximately 35 couples were in attendance to dance to the music of Bill Ralinger's orchestra. Special numbers at intermission were furnished by the Arthur Murray Dance Studio of Birmingham.

Official chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. John Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dykstra and Kenneth Ollis. Dykstra is the junior class advisor, hosts of the evening.

News Notes from Vaughan School

Last week of school! Final examinations are given Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, with commencement coming Thursday night. Then all students report Friday at 1 p.m. to receive their report cards for the last time this year.

The previous week was a busy one. On Wednesday, the long one, Hillcrest came, and the 49er edition was eagerly accepted by the students. Friday, brought the Honors Assembly in the morning, and the Junior-Senior prom at night. The study hall was beautifully transformed into a garden at the blossom time dance, and the school social program came to a close for another year.

School Is Out!

Quite a week they've had at Franklin school. On Monday the fifth and sixth grades put on a program that was a summary of the work done by the health council this past year. Mrs. Nicholls, representative to the Birmingham council, reported on the last meeting of the council, and a group of artists. It was determined at this meeting that next year's program would deal with dental health.

A play with Don Fraser as doctor and Doris Lovell as nurse, with a score of characters representing vitamins and such, dramatized the work of the council.

On Tuesday the first and second grades entertained their mothers and younger brothers and sisters with a program and tea. There was a play and singing and display of the village they constructed. The play was the culmination of the good manners program they have been working on.

Wednesday was the school picnic with hot dog roast on "Jim's" (James Bowden, the indispensable) fires, pop, cake and ice cream.

Now there's just Friday and report cards and a long, long beautiful summer.

Baldwin Again Earns U. of M. Accrediting

According to a letter received last week by Principal Ross A. Wagner, Baldwin high school has again been accredited by the University of Michigan under the continuous accrediting plan.

At a recent meeting the University committee gave consideration to reports and other information concerning the high school. This system is a three-year plan, in which a series of periodic visits are made by University representatives after one, two or three years and schools classified accordingly.

Belated Birthday

Bob Hinman finally caught up with his birthday party last Saturday. Bob's birthday was last month and he had planned a baseball party only to find that all tickets were gone for the game. So last Saturday Bob, Jon Weitzel, Bob Taylor, Robert Dreman, John Bisk and Roger Hard joined the group in front of Shain's to take the YMCA bus into the stadium. A wonderful time, except the Tigers had to go and lose.

Ride 'em Cowboy

It was "ride 'em cowboy" for Jimmy Woodburn's birthday party last Saturday. Jimmy entertained his friends (all dressed as cowboys) at a luncheon and swimming party at Oakland Hills country club. Carrying out the cowboy theme were table and cake decorations.

A Fugitive from the Women's Page

"What a delicious cake, Maggie. Would you be willing to give me your recipe for it?"

"Certainly, Miss. It's mighty easy to make. I just take as much flour as I think I'll need and quite a little bit of butter and a pinch or two of cream of tartar, and several eggs if they plenty and less if they ain't and stir till I get tired and bake in an average oven until I think its done."

Bloomfield Village School Activities

Students of the first four grades of Bloomfield Village school visited the First farm last Thursday. The visit to the various parts of the farm was highlighted by a very young "chick" with a very young calf, after which came the thrill of a hayride. After a picnic lunch at noon, the youngsters returned to school to resume classes.

The Brownies of the school had their fly-up ceremonies last Tuesday, when six of the girls were honored.
