Miss Averill Becomes Bride Of Donald Paul Babson

Carrying a cascade arrangement of white orchids and roses with ivory trails, Miss Susan Charlotte Averill became the bride of Donald Paul Babson in a charming ceremony Friday at Christ Church Episcopal, The Bazaar, Elizabeth L. DeWitt, assisted by the Rev. W. Glen Harris, officiated at the double ring service in a setting of white gladioli, stock and peonies against a background of candelabras.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Averill of Rivenook avenue are the bride's parents and Mr. Babson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul T. Babson of Wellesley, Mass.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was in traditional white. Three tiers of illusion of graded length formed her wedding veil and fell from an open crown of satin. The softly curved pearls was highlighted with seed beads and sequins in a sequin in a lower motif. Her candlelight satin gown was fashioned with a deep sweet-necked neckline and was edged with a tiny ruff of tulle as were the long, pointed sleeves. The fitted bodice was cut with a white panel in the front and a wide satin band at the hips formed points and a double-breasted skirt of unpressed pleats was full and swept into a long train.

Miss Averill wore her sister-in-law, Mrs. George Williams Averill of Berkeley as matron of honor and Miss Lynn Lyle of Birmingham, who was honor maid. Bridesmaids included Mrs. Charles Chapman of Detroit; Mrs. Jack Burtel of Royal Oak; Miss Marion Parker of Grosse Pointe; Miss Bernice Horn of Lansing and Mrs. Delvin Cadillac of Detroit.

All were dressed in green metallic chambray with silver stripes, styled with an open front of necklines, long sleeves, fitted bodices and long straight skirts featuring large stapes over the "ships in front to form a point in back. Floating panels of pleats formed the skirt. Silver cords trimmed their open crown caps made of the same material as their crowns.

Mrs. Averill carried a bouquet of rhabrum lilies and light pink roses with, ivy trails. Miss Lyle's bouquet was of deep pink roses and ivy while the bridesmaids' flowers were red roses and ivy.

Fred I. Brown, of Boston, Mass., acted as best man and the guests were escorted to their seats by Harold Reynolds of New York City; Dwight Hollister of Wellesley Hills, Mass.; John Devaney of Toronto, Ont.; Craig Gresson of Garden City, L. I.; and brothers of the bride, John Mills Averill of Birmingham and George William Averill of Berkeley.

For the ceremony and reception which followed at the Oakland Hills Country Club, the bride's mother wore a dress of toast colored lace and crepe with a hat of matching maizine trimmed with soft pink bows. A corsage of rhabrum lilies was pinned to her shoulder. Mrs. Babson was in a soft beige chintilly lace and chiffon.

Mr. Donald P. Babson made up of green cymbidium orchids.

As the couple started out on a wedding trip, Mrs. Babson was wearing a shapskin gardenia suit of grey and tints, white diamond shaped checks. The ensemble was cut with a high oval collar and a double-breasted, short jacket. Her accessories were black and white and she carried a bright green topper.

After a week in Michigan and a week at the Seignior Club, they will spend the fourth of July weekend at a lake in New Hampshire after which they will go to their home in Cambridge, Mass.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. George L. Babson of Syracuse, N. Y.; Mrs. Glen T. Babson of Waukegan Hills; Miss Iona Stuart of Toronto; Mrs. Shannon T. Kuhn of Cleveland Heights, Ohio, and Mrs. Richard Edelen of Toledo.

Social Briefs

The Misses Anne Wilson, Barbara Watkins and Norma Jean Waterbury, Kingswood school graduates, entertained members of their class at a luncheon held in the Pine Lake Country Club on Friday.

Fred Jeffers, following his graduation from the University of Michigan, has returned to Birmingham to spend the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Jeffers of Sufield road. This fall he plans to enter the Navy.

Yesterday evening a group of localites made their way over to the Charles Beale Brown street residence to help Mr. Beale celebrate his birthday. Among those present was his mother, Mr. Adia Beale of Long Beach, Calif., who is her son's houseguest this month. Mr. and Mrs. Torry Beale have been visiting here and are leaving today for a week in Grand Bend, Canada. They will return to the Beale home for the remainder of the summer.

Mrs. Della Wilson entertained the women of the Present Day Club at a pot-luck luncheon in her home on Bird avenue last week. Guests of honor for the afternoon were Mrs. Adia Beale, retiring president of the organization, and Mrs. Eva Craig who is moving soon to Oregon.

Elect Officers at Altar Society's Final Meeting

Last Thursday, over 100 members of the Holy Name Altar Society met for a pot-luck luncheon on the lawn of Mrs. John Moore's Covington road residence.

Election of officers was held at this time and Mrs. Bernard Lourie was named president; vice-president and chairman of the guilds is Mrs. James C. Shannon, Jr.; Mrs. L. M. Hogan was named secretary and Mrs. Irwin Shurtz was nominated as treasurer.

Guild chairmen include Mrs. Robert Squiers, Mrs. Cassan Wilson, Mrs. G. C. Goodie, Mrs. Charles R. Thomson, Mrs. Martin Murawsky, Mrs. Norman H. Stanton, Mrs. Arch Stevenson, Mrs. G. W. Garry, Mrs. William Shaughnessy, Mrs. Arthur D. LaFave and Mrs. Richard R. Hindley.

The gathering concluded with the presentation of a one-act play entitled "Of the Old Block" presented under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Greiner.

Members of St. Marys guild were hostesses for the afternoon.

School Council Presents Report on Past Year's Work

The Adams school council has concluded its activities for the year. The principal project, which will be continued next year, has been to help the Navajo Indian children at Dennehotso School, Kayenta, Ariz.

Achievements for the year included a successful clothing drive. Over 1300 garments were sent. At least one Christmas gift was provided for each of the 128 Indian children. They, in turn, sent about 70 pieces of school art work which were loaned by Adams children to help provide film for their visual education program next year.

Officers of the student council for this semester have been Gail Koepfer, president; Robert Stahl, vice-president; Mickey Weston and Martha Withington, secretary; Frank Mabley, treasurer, and Tim Usher, sergeant-at-arms.

Two-week courses at 76 schools are offered Naval Reservists for annual training with pay.

"Dear Dad
—We Love You!"

WHEN DAD'S DAY arrives the kind of gift you give your Father will speak volumes! Make certain yours says: "We love you!" For Father's Day is a day apart. It's the day of all the year that is his special occasion. It's a day when your assurance of love will take on special significance, when your gift will be looked upon with the kind of quiet gratefulness characteristically deep in the heart of one who—all through the year—does so much for others, with little thought of self.

You will find at LaBelles the kind of special men's gifts which, with silent yet strong eloquence, will truly say: "Dear Dad—We Love You." We sincerely believe they are the kind of gifts appreciated not only at first sight, but more and more as they are used. And above all, remember that "His Day" will be here before you know it. This year it comes on:
