SUN TIME IS DANGEROUS

Every summer millions of Americans hasten to the beach and pools for happy hours of fun and sun. This is the time for caution. What you may gain from sunbathing must be balanced against the harm possible from overexposure. Too much sunbathing may put a strain on the kidneys, result in rashes or shock, or even lead to skin cancer.

This & That

attention letters and telegrams addressed to the Michigan Corporation and Securities Commission for approval of the Tucker stock for sale in the Wolverine State. A number of telephone calls, too, came to my desk, one in particular from a Tucker Corp. official in Chicago.

Told Not to Move

Knowing the Siger mind, I had no hesitancy in immediately contacting Howard Warner, then head of the Commission. "Howard," I said over the telephone in Lansing, "is your office being bombarded with requests to move the Tucker stock case?"

Objective Manner

It was the impartial and objective manner in which State business was transacted in the Executive Office. Long after Tucker completed efforts to win Michigan approval for his stock sale, the Siger move to the state was not expected to handle it as my executive secretary."

Faces Ohio Charges

Local police Saturday arrested John Lahrs on the request of police officers from Lakewood, Ohio, who had received information that the man was in this area. Charged with passing bad checks, Lahrs waived extradition and was returned to Ohio to face charges.

Stratocruiser on the Scales

Too large to be weighed on a single scale, this Boeing Stratocruiser is balanced on three—one under the nose, and two under the wings. The plane's wheels are a scant inch off the floor of the building at Boeing's Seattle, Wash., headquarters. By adding the figures registered on each of the three scales, the total weight of the plane—71 tons—is computed.

school buildings compiled from data gathered by the secretary and treasurer of the township for those proposed for the township. Putnam entreated the audience to weigh carefully the forthcoming issue. He stressed the need for a new high school and grade school addition but not on such a grandiose scale.

Obituary Notices

E. Frank Brumbaum, 56, of 125 Aspen died in the University of Michigan hospital Sunday after an illness of one month. He was born on June 28, 1929 in New Britain, Conn., and received his education there.

Letter Is Discussed

A discussion of the letter followed because many in the audience were aware that records had been transported about the township at the will of the school board.

Mrs. Alice Weeks, 70, died June 16 in St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Pontiac, following a long illness. She had come to Birmingham four weeks ago from New York City to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. George Heidemann.
