Picnic Party
Thursday noon the school picnic was held at Clubhouse 1 with all the school children, teachers, mothers and small fry attending. Picnic baskets were made and the contents soon consumed. Ice cream and orange drink were furnished by the P.T.A. John Woodman led the children in community singing.

A series of relays and races were run, directed by Dave Martin, Richard Bennett and John Woodman helped him at the finish line, holding the tape and determining the winners.

Bougie Lewis won the first race. Carrying a suitcase and umbrella each contestant ran to designated points, opened the suitcase, took out an article of clothing, put it on, closed the suitcase and continued to the next stop.

Kindergarten children held a foot race. Edson Stevens and Bobby Sutton won for the boys. Karen Smith and Susan Parkins won first and second place ribbons of the girls. First ribbon for the kindergarten three-legged race went to Karen Smith and Bobby Sutton, second to Lorena Green and Donnie Palmer, third to Susan Parkins and Robert Hemingway. Bobby Sutton and the field in the potato sack race followed by Edson Stevens and Lorena Green.

First and second graders held a sack race with Peggy Boston crossing the finish line first followed by Sandra Sweet and Bobby Sintz. David Smith won the boys' race. Mark White and Bobby Sintz placing second and third. Fastest runner among the girls was Peggy Boston with runners up Jill Morton and Carmen Sutton.

Winners in the third and fourth grade were Paul Sechrist for the boys and Pam Parkins for the girls. Red ribbons went to Charles Sartund and Leslie Stevens and white to Tommy Harrison and Judy Sundstrom. Blue Sintz won the potato sack race. Paul Sechrist was second and Charles Sartund third.

Fifth and sixth grade honors went to Sue Carey and Doug Lewis. Norma Sinclair and Tim Sellner ran second and Patty Nyberg and David Goodwin ran third. The potato sack race was won by Gail Sundstrom. Doug Lewis was second and Tim Sellner third.

First, second and third graders also took part in a three-legged race. Tommy Harrison and Judy Sundstrom were the winning team. Charles Sartund and Pam Parkins placed second. David Smith and Peggy Boston were third. Ribbons went to Sue Carey and David Goodwin. Patty Nyberg and Tim Sellner. Pat McLennan and Gordon Smith also competed in a sack race. Mrs. Edward Sintz took the blue ribbon. Mrs. John Palmer was second.

Social Doings
Karen Gormsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Gormsen of Strawberry Lake with Mrs. Osterbeck's family, the Frederick Sieberts.

Mrs. and Mrs. George Hassett attended the golf dinner in honor of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, held at the Brook Golf Club on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Pettit and their sons Steve and Rickie returned to their Walnut Lake home Sunday evening after a three month's stay in Washington, D. C. Pettit, a writer with Jan Handy, Inc., will be here a week and then go back to Washington to complete the writing for the film he has been working on.

Champion Princess Pat
Bradley's Princess Pat, a doberman pinscher, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Harry MacDonald of Inkster road, is now a champion with more points than the needed. She competed in a show at South Bend, Ind., and returned with three trophies. She won best of winners and best of opposite sex.

Pat will be among the champions to take part in the contest of titlholders during the Doberman Pinscher Club's fifth annual sanctioning contest August 25 at Lindenburg Kennels, Schoenherr and Thirteen Mile road, Warren.

Make Fall Plans
William Sloat presided at the first meeting of the Walnut Lake P.T.A. executive board Monday evening. Program plans for next fall were discussed.

At the project of the year, the P.T.A. will sponsor a school fair to be held February 17. Booths will be allotted to various groups from the school and community.

Everyone is invited to take part and there will be entertainment for every member of the family, a great deal of work and planning is going into the undertaking and the P.T.A. expects it to be a big event.

Club Activities
The women's group of the Women's Club met Tuesday in the park of the first subdivision at 9:30. After working on their remodeling they took part in a picnic lunch.

The Couple Bridge Club ended the season by having a dinner at the Vinery. Mrs. Edna Godfrey of Cash was a guest.

At the board meeting of the Walnut Lake Estates, Inc. plans were made for obtaining road signs to show the correct turning speed limits. This safety measure is being taken to protect the children of the subdivision.

Plans for the Women's Club picnic were completed at a committee meeting last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. John Parkins on Edgewood. A planned picnic will be held June 25 at 6 o'clock at the first clubhouse. It
