Martz Masterton Rites Read In Candlelight Service

In a candlelight service Saturday evening in the First Methodist Church, the Rev. Arnold Runkel officiated at the nuptials of Mrs. Charles H. Martz.

Miss Phyllis Masterton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Masterton of Madison avenue and Charles H. Martz. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Martz of Lakeview avenue.

Wearing white lace over satin and carrying a white orchid on a white Bible, Miss Masterton was given in marriage by her father. Her bridal gown was fashioned with a drop shoulder effect and a bertha of lace, above which there was a seed-pearl trim, edging the neck yoke. The sleeves were long and the bouffant skirt swept into a chapel train. About her neck she wore her mother's brilliant cameo brooch. A delicate brim trimmed in lace held her fingertip veil.

Wearing an off-shoulder gown of green marquisette, Miss Marilyn Meade of Pontiac was maid of honor. Her picture hat matched her gown and her flowers were a colonial bouquet of white daisies and summer flowers. Miss Helen Jean Masterton, a sister of the bride; Miss Patricia Martz, a sister of the bridegroom; Miss Betty Jean Wright of Detroit, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Betty Dufosse of Birmingham attended Miss Masterton as bridesmaids in orchid marquisette cut along the same lines as the honor maid's. They too wore picture hats of matching material and carried colonial bouquets. Miss Mary Ann Reeves and Miss Patricia Wray an flower girls wore green marquisette and carried baskets of rose petals.

Charles Shallberg was best man and acting as ushers were Paul Martz; William Cusickbank of Port Huron; Robert Barton and George Ely of Birmingham.

Mrs. Masterton, for her daughter's wedding, wore a silver grey crepe gown of floor length, Dufosse feathers were in her hair and her corsage was of orchids. Mrs. Martz wore light blue crepe, a pink hat and had rhubarb lilies pinned to her shoulder. The reception was in the church parlors.

For the first steps of a wedding trip to the south, Mrs. Martz selected a navy blue suit with white accessories.

The couple will make their home on Henrietta street.

Wedding Gifts of Beauty and Usefulness

LABELLE Gifts for the bride are gifts of both beauty and usefulness. This explains why these gifts of ours are successful gifts. They have been chosen (before they ever reach the floor of this shop) for their combined attractiveness and "needfulness"! And that, of itself, makes your wedding-gift shopping infinitely easier.

Distinctively gift-wrapped for the occasion, LaBelle Gifts for the bride are a welcome sight indeed.
