Class of '24 Reunion Conversation Will Revolve Around Good Old Days

On June 18 when the Baldwin high school class of 1924 meets for its 25th reunion at 7:00 p.m. dinner in Mayans, the conversation will undoubtedly flow back to the days when Tom Miz was playing in "The Trouble Shooter" and little Jackie Cogan was breaking hearts in "A Boy of Flinders". That was the era when Lillian Osh was making them hold onto their seats in "The White Sister".

Class officers for 1924 were: Rollin Smith, president; Stanley Hand, treasurer; Robert Scherz, vice president and Marie Young, secretary. Smith and his family who now live in California, will be coming up especially for the affair as will Mr. and Mrs. George Hanrahan from Washington, D. C., and the A. E. Duffs of Phoenix, Ariz.

Sold for $295

Besides remembering the Ford touring car which sold for $295 and Paul Whiteman playing "Bring Home the Bacon" and dancing over swimming suits which were more on the order of "ensemble" than a water-wear, those attending the get-together will remember that there was the first class to make the trip to Washington.

Among those who will be reminiscing about the Studebaker Light Six, strawberry festival and such will be the Clarence Vliet and the Melvin Harts. Vernon Smith is general chairman of the affair; Stanley Rosso will be the toastmaster; Mrs. O. Anderson is in charge of dinner arrangements and Mrs. Earl Gaskill is taking care of the Ford touring car which sold for $295 and Paul Whiteman playing "Bring Home the Bacon" and dancing over swimming suits which were more on the order of "ensemble" than a water-wear, those attending the get-together will remember that there was the first class to make the trip to Washington.

Miss Carmela Caputo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dominic S. Caputo, 688 Chesley, and a second year student at Michigan State College, has been selected "Miss Michigan Lions." She was chosen by a committee of judges at the state Lions Convention at Grand Rapids last weekend.

Miss Caputo is 19 years old and is enrolled in a speech course at MSC. She is also an accomplished pianist.

Carmela will accompany the Michigan Lions delegation to the international convention in New York City in July where she will compete with young ladies from all over the United States and from 18 other countries for the title of "Miss Lions International."
