Miss Essery Wears White Organdy for Her Marriage

Wearing a Princess lace finger-tip veil which her mother had worn at her own wedding, Miss Dorothy Essery was united in marriage to Robert Miller Cecil of Spartanburg, S. C. The couple exchanged their vows before the Rev. Harold E. Towne at a 3:00 o'clock ceremony held in the Balford Inn, Saturday, June 4.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Essery carried a bouquet of white Marguerites. Her bridal gown was of white organdy and featured a full skirt with panels of accordion pleats and gathered panels trimmed with ruffles of French Valenciennes lace. The fitted bodice with a high neckline buttoned down the front. Lace edged the three-quarter length sleeves and also formed the collar of the dress. A white tulle sash bound the waistline. Mrs. Leslie D. Joyner of Prospect, Ky., was matron of honor in an ankle length white pique dress which featured a short bodice, cap sleeves, and low neckline. Highlighting the gown was a moss green moire sash. In her hair she wore a small wreath of blue bachelor buttons and white mums and her arm bouquet was of blue bachelor buttons.

Ellen O'Brien of New Brunswick, N. J.; Shirley Macken of Pleasant Ridge and Miss Martha C. Bryant of Detroit were the bridesmaids. They were dressed in white pique styled after the honor matrons and they too wore wreaths of bachelor buttons and mums for their bouquets and carried blue bachelor button bouquets.

Plan Children's Fair in Local Garden June 14

Tuesday, June 14, Play Day is to be celebrated by the state and local branches of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom with a large garden state and children's fair held on the grounds of Mrs. and Mr. Harold Chalk of Manor road. The children's fair, opening at 4 p.m. will duplicate the attractions of two years ago, when a similar benefit festival was held in Birmingham, with such favorites as a fish pond, white elephant booth, used toys and books, balloons, fish, phonograph records, baked and ice cream booth and puppet show.

A smorgasbord dinner will be served at 6:30 and is open to the public. Reservations for dinner may be phoned to Mrs. Chalk thru Sunday, June 12. After serving themselves from the smorgasbord table in the Scandinavian fashion, diners will find table accommodations on the lawn under the varied light of Japanese lanterns.
