Stewart-Wright Vows Exchanged

SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP—The wedding of Betty Wright, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Gerald D. Wright of Normandy road, to Donald Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stewart of Lakewood was solemnized Saturday afternoon, June 4, in the Franklin Community church. Standards of gladioli stood at either side of the candlelit altar.

Best man was James Stewart, brother of the bridegroom and the ushers were Charles Boyd and Gerald Wright, the bride's brother. Given in marriage by her father, Miss Wright wore a white marquisette gown with sweeping train, styled with bouffant skirt, tight bodice and long sleeves. Her veil fell to the floor and was attached to a Dutchess cap with orange blossom trim. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and carnations.

Marjorie Blood of Detroit was matron of honor in a light blue net and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and tiny roses. Mary Lou Manning, the bridesmaid, wore a pink marquisette gown styled as the bride but with short sleeves. She wore long gloves and carried a colonial bouquet of blue larkspur and pink rose buds. Two six-year-old cousins Barbara Bridgeman and Lynda Law, were the flower girls. They were dressed alike in blue and rose organza and carried nosegay bud bouquets. The bride's going away costume was in shades of beige and cinnamon with a natural color straw hat.
