Embury Continues Its Winning Ways

Embury Methodist Church retained the sole undefeated team in the Birmingham YMCA Church League Basketball playoffs, when it defeated Lathrup-Townsend Community Church 51 to 18 last Wednesday on the Barnum Junior High floor. First Methodist staved off elimination by the virtue of its 25 to 19 victory over DeMolay and St. James Episcopal Church, managed to eke out a 20 to 17 win over Holy Name.

Embury took a 10 to 2 lead over Lathrup and then stretched their advantage at each quarter of the game. Harry Sugden, Roger Reynolds and Don Tinner shared scoring honors for Embury which has yet to taste defeat this year. Chuck Stuart dropped in 19 points for Lathrup to lead the Maize and Green in scoring.

Comes From Behind
First Methodist opened up a 11-0-0 lead against the Order of DeMolay and then coasted to a 25 to 19 win as Pete Little tossed in 18 points for the Maple street lads.

It was almost at the end of the second quarter before Connie Burkman broke into the scorched column for DeMolay with a set shot. Don Jones played best on defense for First Methodist while Bob Ralph, Ed Smith and Burkman gave best performances for DeMolay.

St. James Episcopal came from behind to defeat Holy Name 20 to 17 as both quartets matched basket for basket in the last two quarters of their game. Bud DeLoria and Dale Wainwright dropped in 17 points for St. James while Jim Kothe, Keith Ege and Bob Semposki played best for Holy Name. The games at the Barnum Junior High school next Wednesday will be the last of the season.

Obituary Notices

Joe L. Stutte, Jr.
Funeral services will be held this Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Bell Funeral home for the late Joe L. Stutte, Jr. Mr. Stutte died suddenly in Phoenix, Ariz., on Friday, March 18.

He was born Sept. 2, 1922 in Flint, and as a child came here with his parents to make his home. He attended the local schools and was graduated from Baldwin high school. He served as a lieutenant in the air corps and later entered the University of Arizona in 1941, which he was graduated in 1948. In January he was graduated from the Institute of Foreign Trade, member of Phi Gamma Delta, he was also listed in "Who's Who in American Colleges."

Mr. Stutte is survived by his mother, Mrs. Joe L. Stutte of Detroit; a brother, Bill J. of Birmingham and two sisters, Marjorie and Alayne, both of Detroit.

Miss Esther A. Purdy
Miss Esther A. Purdy, 692 West Frank, died Wednesday night of last week in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after an illness of six months. Miss Purdy had been a lifelong resident of Southfield in Township and Birmingham. She was born in the township, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Purdy, and attended the schools there. She became a member of the Southfield United Presbyterian church when a child, and had always been active in its affairs, holding membership in the missionary society it sponsored. She also became a member of the Birmingham W.P.T.U. and the W.P.T.U. Club, after moving here in 1925. Survivors include a sister, Miss Lux Purdy, and four nieces and nephews.

The Bailey Funeral home was in charge of services held in the Southfield church Saturday. Burial was in Southfield cemetery.

Andrew J. Bowden
Andrew J. Bowden, 80, one of the oldest residents in this vicinity, died Monday morning at his home, 23250 Hills street, Franklin, after a long illness. He was born in Bloomfield township on Nov. 6, 1868, the son of Joseph and Mary Drake Bowden. He had spent his entire life in Franklin, where he was once a sexton at the Franklin cemetery. Mr. Bowden at one time operated a barber shop there, served as town marshal, and at the time of his death was the last member of the old Franklin band. He was married to Mary A. Clemons 50 years ago in Franklin. The survivors include his widow and one son, Joseph A. Bowden both of Franklin.

Funeral services were held from the Bell Funeral home Wednesday afternoon with burial in Franklin cemetery. Rev. W. William C. Lovejoy, pastor of the Franklin Community church, officiated.

Mabel King Bishop
Mrs. Mabel King Bishop, 622 Bloomfield court, died Tuesday in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after a very brief illness. She was born in Bloomfield township March 12, 1881, and in 1904 was married to Lawrence B. Bishop of Grand Rapids. They resided in that city for several years, later moving to Detroit. They came to Birmingham in 1920.

Mrs. Bishop was a member of the First Presbyterian church and its organizations and of the Women's club of Birmingham. Surviving is one daughter, Mrs. Lawrence C. Howe of Birmingham, a nephew, Arthur T. King, Birmingham and one grandnephew, Nancy Howe. Funeral services are being held this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the Bell Funeral home, with burial in Greenwood cemetery.
