Down in the Ranch Room

Fun and frolic, that's what goes in between the 19 and 30 of the 19-30 Club. Last Thursday evening, rain prevented the group's scheduled hay-ride but members congregated in the Ranch Room and enjoyed themselves (hot dogs and cokes, too) anyway with dancing, singing and chatter.

New Members, Old Members Welcomed at the 19-30 Club

By Doris E. Kus

"You kids don't know how lucky you are," a recent visitor to the 19-30 Club commented. "How many towns have a place where young people can come down and play pool, cards, ping pong and dance two nights a week? You just don't realize your good fortune."

And that remark is probably all too true. Too many young men and women between the ages of 19 and 30 fail to realize what opportunities lie in the rustic and colorful Ranch Room where the 19-30 Club meets. For a mere one dollar a month one can belong to the Club and enjoy its privileges and its proffered friendship.

Open to and welcoming all those within its age bracket, the Club is a place to get together with old friends, to make new ones. It's a place alive with youth and energy and good times. There's fun to be had there, and more should come and take advantage of it.

This Means You!
Every month a committee is chosen to provide entertainment one night of the two a week. Here's a chance for those with ingenuity to exercise a few talents. Is your special feat a boogie woogie piano? Are you addicted to barber shop quartets? How about that comedy skit that went so big and brought about so many requests for encores and more humorous presentations a long that line? If you're a future Arthur Murray, come on over and let us all in on the latest steps.

The 19-30 Club wants and needs a top notch membership. Not just names on a mailing list, but you there in person! Doing your share, giving a little to the fun. There's so much to be got in return for a funny story or a fast and tricky be-bop piano number.

It's All There
The game room has two pool tables and a ping pong table—plenty of space for avid fans of those games to work up a healthy appetite. The main part of the Ranch Room has a soft-drink bar, a big space for dancing, a juke box and tables aplenty for card sharks. Sounds good, doesn't it!

All that for just one dollar. Informality is the keynote down there. Anything from jeans on up is just so you're comfortable and are set for a good time. That's the only requirement at the 19-30 Club. Have a good time!

So, from president Johnny Day and the rest of the gang, a special invitation personally addressed to all of you is extended. Drop down to the Ranch Room on Tuesdays and Thursdays, a n y t i m e from 8:30 on, for a taste of what the Club has to offer.

St. Petersburg Attracts Many Birminghamites

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Feb. 28.—Three thousand more residents of Michigan are wintering in this sunbath capital of Florida's booming west coast, than were here last year, according to visitor registration records at the Chamber of Commerce. Last year more than 20,000 from the Wolverine state vacationed here, placing the state in fourth position among all 48 states represented in St. Petersburg's winter population.

The Michigan State Society is one of the most active of the many state organizations here, with a membership of more than 1,000. Business meetings are held the first and third Thursdays of each month and innumerable dances, card parties, musicals, picnics, cruises and other entertainment is on the group's crowded calendar. A weekly feature is the Friday night dance at the Palais Royal auditorium.

Among the visitors from Birmingham, who are enjoying their stay in the Sunshine City are Mr. and Mrs. James Atwell, Townsend avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beier, Walnut Lake road; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Hyne, Southfield avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Conley, Hunt road; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crowley, Lahser road; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Enos; Mr. and Mrs. John B. Gay, Baltimore drive; Herb Gibbons West Frank street; Mrs. Jane Cunningham, Bee wood avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hapson, Beverly road; J. F. Kass, Tooting lane; Hardin Mark, Yosemite avenue; Mr. and Mrs. John McKee, North Woodward avenue; Miss L. C. Morley, Euclid avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Ryder, Floyd street; Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Smith, Oxford avenue; John R. Smith, Norfolk drive; Mrs. E. K. Taylor, Aspen road; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Vander Broeck, Birmingham boulevard; Mr. and Mrs. Fenton J. Watkins, Knox street; Mrs. Bertha Wells, Oakland street and Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Westcott, Rivenook avenue.
